NHGCC Curling News

By Ellen Burns

The first ladies in-club, called "The Glad Robinson", was held at the North Halton Golf & Country Club on Sat., 21 Nov., 1992 with all 4 ices filled.

The committee of Erica Thompson and Janet Dean, planned a wonderful day with lots of Christmas decorations and many surprises during the day.

The day was generously sponsored by "Work that Body", 232 Guelph St., and each curler was given a sports bag to begin the day. A lucky door-prize of a "Work that Body" watch was won by Betty Shepherd.

The trophy winners of the day were: Skip: Karen Henderson; Vice, Helen Meizner; Second, Mae Cartwright; and Lead, Gail Bancroft. As well as the trophy honours, each received a 21 day consecutive pass to the Work that Body facilities.

Second prize winners were Alice Frazer, Gert Shortill, Betty VanKlink and Ethel Crowe.

Third prize went to Ellen Burns, Elda Watts, Nancy Gibson and Heather Marchment.

Other door prizes went to Ethel Crowe, Chris Wilde, Joan Shopcott, Betty VanKlink, Ev McLaren, Irene MacIntosh and Theresa Smith, and Gail Bancroft.

The "Hog Line" winner was Ev McLaren.

Racing still fast paced

14 starts and increased his purse earnings to $107,092 on the year.

On Sunday, November 22nd the OJC Harness Horsemen's Wives held a Food Drive at Mohawk in co-operation with the OJC. Racing fans who donated a canned or non-perishable food item enjoyed $1 General admission. Food will benefit the Food Banks in the Halton Region.

World champion pacing mare, Town Pro retired Sunday night at Mohawk in a special trackside ceremony. The five year old daughter of Big Towner-Programmed retires after four seasons of electrifying performances on both sides of the border. 1989 and 1990 divisional champion in the US and Canada and two time Breeders Crown champion, Pro, was voted Canada's Horse of the Year in 1990. The mare with breeding, brains, manners, speed and heart hangs up her hobbles with 40 career wins and $1.3 million in purse earnings. Pro is owned by the Pro Group Stable which includes her trainer, Stew Firlotte, driver Doug Brown, Robert Grand, Jack Robillard, David Bradshaw and Tony Delmonte. Caretaker Cheryl Bloomfield has traveled with Town Pro throughout her career.

Owners Robert Grand and Jack Robillard will retain ownership of Town Pro as she embarks on a new career as a broodmare and she will be bred in 1993 to another harness superstar, Artsplace.
