Hospital ready for tree lighting

Georgetown's 1992 Citizen of the Year, Lena Johnston, will be the special guest of honor at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital's second, annual tree-lighting festivities.

Peggy Kerk, Georgetown Hospital's Buy a Light campaign chairperson, says: "We hope as many as possible will have an opportunity to attend the tree-lighting festivities which will include carol-singing, spiced tea, hot chocolate and Christmas sweets."

Ms. Johnston, who is not only Georgetown's celebrated Citizen of the Year, but also a long-time member of the Hospital Volunteer Association, will formally kick off the tree-lighting event.

The event will be held December 10 from 7 - 8 p.m. outside the Hospital lobby. The evening's festivities are all part of Georgetown Hospital's "Buy a Light" fund-raising campaign for mammography equipment.

According to Peggy Kerk, the Buy a Light campaign is well underway, with a special display planned from December 2nd to 6th at the Georgetown Market Place.

For more information on Georgetown Hospital's Christmas fund-raising event and tree-lighting celebration, please call the Hospital at 873-0111, Ext. 238.
