

Carol-Ann Michaelson works in her studio preparing for today's fundraiser.

Portion of sales for Rape Crisis Centre

Today, Saturday, is the day! Today is the day to purchase hand-crafted gifts from Clay Concepts in Glen Williams. Owner Carol-Ann Michaelson will donate 20% of the day's sales to the Halton Rape Crisis Centre.

"All the work here is beautiful...unique. Most of them are one of a kind pieces," Michaelson said.

Each year Michaelson chooses a charity to receive the monetary donation. The Rape Crisis Centre has been asking for support from north Halton in recent months, and Michaelson was happy to comply.

This year Michaelson has added two guest artists to her annual two week Christmas open house, a silversmith and glass blower. On display are the works of John Robinson and Megan and Peter of Kensington Silver Studio.

Fabric Care TIPS

~ Twentieth of a Series ~ HOLIDAY TRIMMINGS

Your holiday wardrobe may be accentuated by decorative trim: glitter, beads (including rhinestones, and faux pearls), sequins, tear drops, metallic prints, or leather and suede. These trimmings can cause potential care problems.

The major problems with sequins is fading or lack of colorfastness. Many sequins are also subject to peeling, corrosion, curling, color loss, and some even dissolve in drycleaning solvent.

Polystyrene beads dissolve in some drycleaning solvents.

Imitation pearl beads also can cause problems. Appliques made of leather, suede or snakeskin often contain solvent soluble dyes that will disappear during drycleaning, causing color loss and/or transfer of dye.

Care and Cleaning
It's best to act before problems begin. Study the care label before you buy the item. Ask about the retailer's return policy. If there's any doubt about drycleaning, ask to pre-test a small area.

If a problem occurs, the garment should be returned to the retailer.
