

New in Town

The Halton Hills Newcomers' Club is open to women who have resided in Halton Hills less than three years.

We are a non-profit, non-denominational social organization formed to welcome new residents. Ladies meet at 8 p.m. on third Wednesday of each month at the Glen Williams Town Hall. Please call Wendy Robins at 877-1573 for more information.

A reminder from the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce

The Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce reminds all residents to shop locally for the Christmas season as your support for local business will be appreciated.

If you have received excellent service or a quality product, please let us know by filling out a Business of the Month nomination card (available at most stores and forward to the Chamber offices at 174 Guelph St. pr by calling us at 877-7119. The Business of the Year Award will be presented in February. Watch your local paper for your ballot.

Amnesty established here

Amnesty has worked towards their mandate for 31 years. Their plan of action to release prisoners includes extensive letter writing campaigns to foreign governments. "That way his jailers know that he's not an insignificant peasant that no one cares about," Hall said.

In 1977, Amnesty International won the Nobel Peace Prize and in 1978, the United Nations Human Rights Prize.

There are at least 200 A.I. chapters in Canada, with "over a million members worldwide in 150 countries," said Hall.

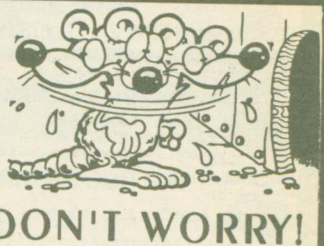

Thursday, Dec. 10 is Human Rights Day. The Halton Hills Amnesty International will have a display at the Georgetown mall. The Halton Hills Amnesty International meet monthly. The next meeting is Tuesday, Dec. 8 at 7 p.m. in the library of St. Francis of Assisi School, Georgetown. For information call 877-9191.

Seniors Drop-in

Glen Williams and surrounding area seniors are invited to attend all or part of the Wednesday activities at a Seniors Drop-in Centre. Come join us, a warm welcome awaits you. St. Alban's Church Parish Hall, Glen Williams. For more information call Lillian Bumford 873-1318 or Peggy Dallimore 873-7603.
