Montgomery's

We have a large selection of Collector Plates from the Bradford Exchange!

"Gifts of the Magi," first issue in The Christmas Story collection by artist Hector Garrido, who masterfully recalls the magnificent artistic style of the Renaissance in this dramatic, moving vision. Issued under the W.S. George hallmark in an edition limited to 150 firing days. 22K gold rim. Bradex no. 84-G20-78.1

of Georgetown Gifts and Collectibles

"Angels We Have Heard On High," first issue in the collection entitled Little Angels by British portraitist Brenda Burke. Two beautiful cherubs suddenly appear in the December sky, surrounded by a shower of crystal snowflakes. Issued under the W.S. George hallmark in an edition limited to 150 firing days. Rimmed in 22K gold. Bradex no. 84-G20-94.1

Collectible Porcelain Dolls by Ashton Drake Gallery

"Danielle" This baby girl has just discovered what fun it is to tickle her own chubby toes! "Danielle" is the final issue in the legendary Yolanda's Picture-Perfect Babies® porcelain doll collection. She's handpainted, and wears a lacy pinafore and a bonnet lavished with woven ribbon. Removable knit socks are included. Actual size is 24 1/4 cm high, seated.

"Nicolette" As she practices her flute playing, "Nicolette" dreams of a future on the concert stage. She is part of the Beautiful Dreamers collection designed by Gaby Redemann. "Nicolette" has gentle, hand painted porcelain features, and wears a floral print dress and a dainty pinafore. Complete with sculpted flute and miniature sheet music. Actual size is 27 cm high, seated.

Music Boxes in Porcelain by Ardleigh Elliott & Sons!

"Cheerful Beginnings" Music Box. This is a combination of the art of Chinese master Tan Chun Chiu with the music of the lilting Irish folk song, Dawning of the Day. Here is a music box as spirited as a pair of chickadees on a bright spring morning, as mellow and merry as an Irish tenor.

"Morning Mood" Music Box. Tan Chun Chiu's silk-painted original for this music box is a triumph: sheltered by a bower of pink peach blossoms, the blue jays greet a spring morning as soft and luminous as memory. Music "Morning Mood" written by Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg (1843-1907).
