

HALTON HILLS SOUTH COMMUNITY CONSULTATION COMMITTEE

The Halton Hills South Community Consultation Committee is a group of citizens, and Halton Regional Police Officers who meet on a regular basis to identify community concerns and establish an effective joint response to eliminate the concerns.

The concerns addressed can range from something as simple as a parking problem, to something as complex as a series of Break and Enters.

Committee Mandate

The Halton Hills South Community Consultation Committee is established to:

- 1) Increase information sharing between the police and the community
- 2) Identify Community / Police concerns and initiate programs to overcome or eliminate them.
- 3) Alter the misconception that the police are inaccessible to the public.

The Halton Hills South Consultation Committee serves residents of rural Halton Hills who live south of 15 side road between the Town Line and Trafalgar Rd as well as residents who live south of 10th side road between Trafalgar Rd and Winston Churchill Blvd. IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN BECOMING INVOLVED WITH THE COMMITTEE, OR HAVE A CONCERN YOU WOULD LIKE TO HAVE ADDRESSED, PLEASE CONTACT:

SGT. WAYNE EASTWOOD AT 878-5511 ext. 2111 or K. WHITWORTH AT 877-8682

Juveniles take Port Perry tourney

The Maple Lodge Juvenile Raiders captured the Port Perry Juvenile Tournament Championship on the weekend.

The victory was a stunning turn around considering their performance in recent weeks.

Game one featured Georgetown against Oshawa. The home town

Raiders took until the third period to blow this one open battling to a 7-3 win.

Justin Wees led the way in scoring with a goal and three assists, Steve Alchin had two goals, with singles going to Ellard, Barrow, Bratton, Butt. Assists went to Lund with three, Bratton two,

Pierie two, while Barrow, Cooper and Tooley picked up one each.

In game two, Georgetown faced Markham and came away with a 6-1 victory.

Shawn Tooley scored two, Alchin, Barrow, Ellard, Lund had singles. Assists went to Lund, Alchin, Wees, Harris, Barrow and Goody.

Game Three, the - Championship Game saw Georgetown once again facing hometown Port Perry

It was a tightly fought game with outstanding goaltending by both the Port Perry netminder and the Raider's Mark St. Pierie.

The temas were even after Goerogetown netted one in the first and Port Perry scored in the second.

With just 1:20 left in regulation, Jamie Gooding potted one from the point in the bottom corner of the Port Perry net to lock up the championship.

Lund had the other Georgetown goal and was assisted by Cooper

On Sunday, a league game against Chinguacousy ended in a 4-3 loss with the hometown boys receiving 30 minutes in penalties compared to 12 minutes for Ching.

The Georgetown District High School athletes of the week are (left) Deanna Gulgnard and Don Campbell. Gulgnard, a Grade 11 student, plays for the senior Rebels girls volleyball team while Campbell, a grade 12 student, is a member of the Rebels wrestling team.
