Atoms pick up victory in Dundas

The John Henderson Pro Shop Major Atom hockey club travelled to Dundas and came away with a well-deserved victory on Sunday, Dec. 20.

Despite some excellent saves by Ryan Carter and aggressive penalty-killing by Sean Muscat and Jason Campbell, Dundas opened the scoring with a power-play goal midway through the first.

Dan Smith closed out the first with an unassisted marker late in the period. Dundas took a 3-1 lead with two goals early in the second frame.

Roddy Heinz narrowed the gap with a low shot from the slot at 6:06. Bryan Stuttard tied it a three with 3:44 remaining, assisted by Derek Mitchell.

Excellent penalty killing by forward combinations of Ryan Bobor/Jason Hayes and Jason Campbell/Sean Muscat and a defensive play by Brent McClung helped end the second period tied at 3-3.

Two minutes into the third, Scott Ellis put Georgetown ahead 4-3 with a strong rush, scoring with a low wrist shot.

Dundas managed to tie again with 9:27 remaining. Stuttard scored his second goal of the game, assisted by Dan Smith, at 7:44 giving Georgetown the 5-4 victory.

Determined penalty killing, late in the third, by Mike Rovere and Josh Travers helped maintain the Georgetown victory.

Special mention to Bryan Stuttard for a two goal/two assist game and to Ryan Bobor for his determined play.

Hustlers, Gasketmen tied

-poned until they next meet. They will play for double points. Hustlers and Gasketmen are tied at the top of the first division with 74 points each, nine ahead of Westenders with Steeprock a further point adrift. Dream Team heads second division with 89 points, some 20 points in front of Ensigns. Hotshots are third and Independents fourth.

Stan Rhynold had five starts, 103, 120, 120, 100 and a "poor" 60 to go with two finishes. Four starts each for Ron Scarlett and Rod Beaumont with Erwin See closing three and Beau Beaumont firing a 180. Paul Kavanaugh had five opens and Roy Rudiger had four opens. High scores from Dae Scutt, 140, and 135 from Chris Scutt and Bruce Scott. Dave Scott also had a closing 100.

Eddie Ebbinge, Ace Bailey and Gord Inglis shot 135 with John Burke coming in with 118.

Two matches were important to the teams which played each other in the Halton league last Monday, if only because they were close to each other in the standings. No ground was gained or lost between Copper Kettle #1 and Legion #1 with a 7-7 tie. However, George #4 gained ground at the expense of Legion #3 by a 10-4 margin. Meanwhile, the front running Legion #4 carried on with a 14-0 shellacking of bottom team George #3. McGibbon defeated Time Out #1 10-4 to stay in second place. George's #2 and #1 fought out a "tough and gritting" match before #2 won 9-5. Legion #2 defeated Time Out #2 by the same score. Finally and not least of all, O'Tooles took out Copper Kettle #2 11-3 for a fine win.

The Kettle/Legion tied match was a little unusual. The teams and singles were evenly divided with Legion winning the first half of each sets of games. Then the doubles opened with Kettle winning two and now looking for the win. It was not to be, as we know, with the last two sets going Legion's way to salvage the tie. George #4 and Legion #3 tied the teams and opening four singles and it looked as though we were heading for another tied match. At this stage in the match the visiting George took the remaining singles and went on to win three of the four doubles.

Maximums from Eddie Ebbinge, Danny Fraser and Paul Kirby. Kirby now has won three for the category lead. Dave McNeilly closed 116, AL Murphy closed 105 and Keith Ewing holds the lead with 136. Mike Pepper fired 146 and 160 for the high scores of the night.
