CARD OF THANKS

Thank you. Once more I thank all my friends in Georgetown for their kind concern for me. Yes, I did it again and required more hip surgery. So many people came through with support: Knox Church ladies and men with visits and flowers, Rebecca Lodge and Tops with their unique Christmas tree. I loved it. Many others phoned and visited as well as my family. I want especially to thank the nurses of Georgetown Hospital. I have been a patient in many hospitals over the years and there are none better. Hopefully, I can stay out of trouble for a while. Wishing all the joys of the season to old and new friends.

Florence Smith.

IN MEMORIAM

JACOBS, Shane Alexander, who passed away December 30th, 1991. Your leaving, Shane, was sudden

No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we realized
And only God knows why
The things we feel so deeply
Are the hardest things to say
But you know that we all love you
In a very special way
Only those who have lost
Are able to tell
The pain in our hearts
At not saying "Farewell"
A Golden Heart stopped beating
Two busy hands at rest
God broke our Hearts
To prove to us
He only takes the best
If tears could build a stairway
And Heartaches make a lane
We'd walk a path to Heaven
And bring you home again
Our Family Chain is broken
And nothing is the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

We will always love you and remember you, our Dear Shane...Mom, Dad, Mike, Lisa and Dave.

IN MEMORIAM

JACOBS - In loving memory of our beloved son, Shane Alexander Jacobs, who suddenly was taken from us December 30th, 1991.

I feel the wind rushing past me whispering your name. Shane...Shane...Where are you? What happened to you? Dear God, Shane, please come home. We need you so much in our lives. I see you everywhere, but you are nowhere. I hold you close and rest your head close to my heart and your beautiful hair feels like silk with your soft curls tickling my chin. I feel your strong arms hug me back the way you always did. I feel hot tear drops streaming down my cheeks and the pain has lifted momentarily from my heart because I have you back again. But then I open my eyes to find empty arms and feel the torment because I will never hold you or see you again in this lifetime. You always told me that you were never afraid to die, and now, either am I. For I know that you will be waiting for me and once again, we will be together again. We love you so much. We are trying to go on without you the best way we can. You will live on in our hearts and our memories forever, for you are still our hero, the wind beneath our wings.
Love forever, Mom.

JACOBS - In loving memory of my beautiful grandson, Shane Alexander Jacobs, who passed away December 30th, 1991.

Thank you God for lending Shane
Although his stay was brief
When you took him back again
You caused us pain and grief
He left us cherished memories
That we are proud to own
For memories are the only thing
That grief can call his own
His smiling eyes and sunny smile
We never shall forget
Often through the silent mist
I can see him smiling yet
Dear God I often wonder
And I'm going to ask you why
The thorns keep on growing
And the roses always die
Shane was strong and healthy
And he really loved to live
He loved life and adventure
And he had a lot to give
His wit and sense of humour
Often we recall
At family get togethers
We miss him most of all

As we walk life's road without him
We often speak his name
And wonder if this old world
Will ever be the same
But we go on and try to smile
Despite the silent tear
He will live in our hearts forever
And memories will keep him near
To know him was to love him
To lose him was but pain
Somewhere beyond the sunset
I know we will meet again
And when we cross the river
And life on Earth is o'er
Please, God, may he be waiting
When we anchor on the shore.
Lovingly remembered,
Margaret King,
Shane's Grandmother.

IN MEMORIAM

JACOBS - A very dear friend gave me this poem to help me through this very difficult season. She too, has lost a beautiful daughter and shares the pain that our family is feeling. I hope that you will print this for her, and for me.

Merry Christmas, our dearest Shane and our dearest Lynne.

We had a beautiful flower,
So fragile, so sweet and fair,
We thought we only must love it,
and guard it with tender care.

We watch our flower expanding,
From bud to blossom it grew,
and the pride we took in it's beauty

None but the Gardner knew.

He said 'No harm shall befall it;
we'll watch it by day and by night,
No hand that is rude shall touch it,
Nothing it's beauty shall blight'.

So we loved our flower dearly, and thought to keep it always,
but the King of the Garden saw it,
and My Lord the King did say:
"Give me the flower beautiful,
Thou guardest with loving care;
The wind and the storm would harm it,
Their fury it cannot bear"

"Even your love cannot shield it
As I can shield it for thee, I'll keep it forever fadeless, and in Angels' care it shall be"

He took our beautiful flower,
We called but he would not stay and, wearing it in his bosom
He went from out of sight, away.

But he is King of the Gardens;
He loves earth's choicest flowers,
and we know He placed
our blossom
In bright unfading bowers.

And tho' we weep and are lonely
Without our beautiful flower
We know the Lord our Master
Will say in some sad lone hour.

"Come to my heavenly garden and see it in perfect bloom,
The flower you loved so truly,
and thought that I had plucked too soon

Oh, THEN we shall know the reason,
Though we shall know it not today
Why in it's promising beauty
He took our flower away.
