Mr. Ken Bellamy,
232 Guelph St., Unit #9
Georgetown, Ont.
L7G 4B1

Dear Mr. Bellamy:

As you are aware TWG Travel has just completed a five week advertising campaign, using full page ads, in your newspaper, during which we featured many special prices for cruises, sun vacations, air fare and other travel features including sell-offs and merchandise from our Travel Boutique. As a newspaperman you undoubtedly have seen many such programs and advised business people on how to structure their advertising. I am sure you have wondered how effective this has been for your advertisers.

Our campaign has been a resounding success and we are writing to thank you for your assistance and advice. Your courteous and capable staff, and your personal attention to the many details have been of great assistance to us and have contributed to the increased business generated by these efforts.

Your co-operation enabled us to advertise our services and price specials and we were able to demonstrate to the people of Halton Hills and area that we can offer bargains as good as, if not better than, the discount travel agencies in Toronto and provide a higher level of personal service while doing so. This message has been effectively delivered by your newspaper.

We thank you for all your help and assure you that we will continue to advertise our services in your publication.

Sincerely,

Sally Rutenberg
