IN MEMORIAM

JACOBS - In loving memory of our beloved son, Shane Alexander Jacobs, who suddenly was taken from us December 30th, 1991. I feel the wind rushing past me whispering your name. Shane...Shane...Where are you? What happened to you? Dear God, Shane, please come home. We need you so much in our lives. I see you everywhere, but you are nowhere. I hold you close and rest your head close to my heart and your beautiful hair feels like silk with your soft curls tickling my chin. I feel your strong arms hug me back the way you always did. I feel hot tear drops streaming down my cheeks and the pain has lifted momentarily from my heart because I have you back again. But then I open my eyes to find empty arms and feel the torment because I will never hold you or see you again in this lifetime. You always told me that you were never afraid to die, and now, either am I. For I know that you will be waiting for me and once again, we will be together again. We love you so much. We are trying to go on without you the best way we can. You will live on in our hearts and our memories forever, for you are still our hero, the wind beneath our wings. Love forever, Mom.

IN MEMORIAM

JACOBS, Shane Alexander, who passed away December 30th, 1991. Your leaving, Shane, was sudden. No time to say goodbye. You were gone before we realized. And only God knows why. The things we feel so deeply. Are the hardest things to say. But you know that we all love you. In a very special way. Only those who have lost. Are able to tell. The pain in our hearts. At not saying "Farewell". A Golden Heart stopped beating. Two busy hands at rest. God broke our Hearts. To prove to us. He only takes the best. If tears could build a stairway. And Heartaches make a lane. We'd walk a path to Heaven. And bring you home again. Our Family Chain is broken. And nothing is the same. But as God calls us one by one. The chain will link again. We will always love you and remember you, our Dear Shane...Mom, Dad, Mike, Lisa and Dave.

JACOBS - In loving memory of my beautiful grandson, Shane Alexander Jacobs, who passed away December 30th, 1991.

Thank you God for lending Shane. Although his stay was brief. When you took him back again. You caused us pain and grief.

He left us cherished memories. That we are proud to own. For memories are the only thing. That grief can call his own. His smiling eyes and sunny smile. We never shall forget. Often through the silent mist. I can see him smiling yet.

Dear God I often wonder. And I'm going to ask you why. The thorns keep on growing. And the roses always die. Shane was strong and healthy. And he really loved to live. He loved life and adventure. And he had a lot to give.

His wit and sense of humour. Often we recall. At family get togethers. We miss him most of all.

As we walk life's road without him. We often speak his name. And wonder if this old world. Will ever be the same.

But we go on and try to smile. Despite the silent tear. He will live in our hearts forever. And memories will keep him near. To know him was to love him. To lose him was but pain. Somewhere beyond the sunset. I know we will meet again.

And when we cross the river. And life on Earth is o'er. Please, God, may he be waiting. When we anchor on the shore.

Lovingly remembered,
 Margaret King,
 Shane's Grandmother.
