

Self-Reliant Learning Program

Credit Courses Leading To A High School Diploma

Continuous Admission January to March

An alternative program for those who require an individualized program at the senior level.

WHO BENEFITS?

- ◆ Adults
- ◆ Students over 17
- ◆ Students requiring a High School diploma for College or University entrance
- ◆ Students for whom regular attendance at day school is not possible
- ◆ Students for whom work and school must be combined
- ◆ Students for whom family and school responsibilities must be combined

		Burlington General Brock	Oakville General Wolfe	Milton E.C.Drury
English	10- OAC	●	●	●
Math	10- OAC	●	●	●
Biology	11- OAC	●	●	●
Chemistry	11- OAC	●	●	● (11)
Physics	12- OAC	●	●	● (12)
Science & Society	OAC	●	●	●
Geography	11- OAC	● (OAC)	●	● (OAC)
History	11- OAC	●	●	● (OAC)
Sociology	11- OAC	●	●	●
Personal Life Management	11	●		●
Accounting	11- OAC	●	● (11)	●
Economics	OAC	●		●
Law	12- OAC	●	● (OAC)	●
Marketing	11	●	●	●
Information Processing (wordpro, spreadsheets, data base)	11,12	●	●	●
Visual Arts	11- OAC	●		●
Entrepreneurship	12	●		●
Administrative Studies	OAC	●		●
Cooperative Education	12	●		●

Call: David Knight 632-2944 Alan Hicken 845-7542 Andy Smith 878-2244

- Adult setting
- Flexible Hours
- Continuous Admission Jan-March

"The Self-Reliant Program is very flexible - very helpful when other responsibilities exist."

"It was a great experience and made me feel more self-confident that I am still able to learn new things. Education is truly Ageless!"