7-Eleven helping Crime Stoppers

A unique fund raising drive is being organized by Southland Canada Incorporated to collect money at its 7-Eleven stores across Ontario to assist various Crime Stoppers programs.

"All proceeds collected in donation boxes during January, May and July will be given to Crime Stoppers," said Derek Perks of Southland Canada Incorporated.

"The various Crime Stoppers programs operating in Ontario have made a major contribution in helping combat crime and keeping our communities safe," said Perks.

"In recognition of these efforts we are pleased to include Crime Stoppers in our ongoing campaign to raise funds to support worthwhile endeavors."

Perks said through the years the donation boxes at 7-Eleven stores have been used exclusively to raise money for Muscular Dystrophy, but the program is being expanded in 1993 to provide assistance to other charitable organizations.

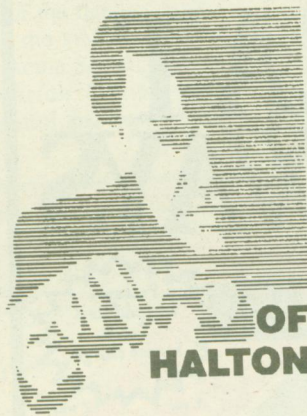

Sergeant Dan Farr of Crime Stoppers of Halton said "the 40 Crime Stoppers programs in Ontario appreciate the support being provided by the network of 7-Eleven stores and the recognition given by Southland Canada Incorporated of the crime fighting efforts of various programs.

"Money collected in donation boxes will be used to pay rewards for tips to Crime Stoppers which help police solve crimes in our community," said Farr.

Across Ontario, the several Crime Stoppers programs have been responsible for recovering $38,375,081 in stolen property and the seizure of illicit drugs worth $66,085,174 off the streets.
