Legion Lines -- Branch 120

by Harry Archer

Thanks to the Organizing Committee, our New Year's celebration was a huge success and the sellout crowd really enjoyed the festivities.

After the holiday break, it is hoped to have all our activities back on track this week, so let's see all you crib, dart and euchre players turn out in full force.

The President's New Year's Day Levee was well attended, and the President and Executive Officers of Branch 120 would like to wish all members a Very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Members are still required for the in-house snooker league slated to begin on January 13. Phone Brian Bludd at 877-5312 for more information.

A Robbie Burns supper will be held at the Legion on January 23 at 7:00 p.m. Tickets at the bar or phone Flo at 877-4132.

Our regular meat draw will begin on Saturday, January 9 with an early bird draw at 3 p.m.

A special draw was held last Saturday at which a total of 20 hams were won by the following:

Harry Bottoms won three, closely followed by Neil Johnston with two. Other winners were Bill Collier, Marg Carney, Marc LaFleur, Dick Appleyard, Brenda Archer, Denny McCartney, Christine McDonald, Vera Kirby, and Wayne Richardson.
