Peewees improve record with three wins

Ridley Windows and Doors Hurricane Peewees recently improved their standings in the Central League with wins against Brampton, Burlington and Oakville.

In the Brampton match-ups, the Hurricanes came away with 5-2 and 4-0 victories. On home ice at Tonelli Arena, Milton, Hurricane Ben Wilson scored two quick goals from the slot area to lead his team in scoring for that game.

Other Hurricane scorers were

Shane Thompson, Darren Haydar, and Matt Peers.

The second win over Brampton was also played at Tonelli Arena and saw goals by Haydar, Adam Bertoli, Jeff Seeds and Thompson. Assisting on Halton goals were Chris Chlisczyk, Paul Loader and Jared Robinson.

The big win for the Hurricanes so far this season came when the team traveled to Oakville on a snowy Dec. 11 evening.

Although the Hurricanes had played some strong games against the Oakville team in the past three years, they had yet to record a win.

In probably their best game so far this season, the Halton Peewees came home with a big 2-1 victory. Both Hurricane goals were netted by Adam Bertoli with linemate Darren Haydar assisting.

Strong defensive play, highlighted with the goaltending skill of Ryan Billingham, was shown by Chris Chlisczyk, Paul Loader, Matt Peers, Jared Robinson, Wes Blight, Jeff Seeds, Ben Wilson and Dan Collins as they kept the Oakville opponents to a single goal.

Back-to-back wins for the Hurricanes over Burlington were also recorded in the month of December.

Playing in Burlington proved no obstacle for the Halton squad as they trounced the home team with a 4-1 victory. In the return match played on home ice at Tonelli, the Hurricanes again came up with a strong win. Matt Peers and Jeff Seeds each scored two goals to lead their squad to victory.

Netminders Billingham and

Chad Mehlenbacher have been in top form as they have kept their team in numerous games with outstanding play.

Opponents have been turned away empty-handed time after time as Mehlenbacher and Billingham made great saves.

Representing Georgetown on the Hurricane Peewees are Thompson, Blight, Brad Davidson and Curtis Hoogendam.

The Hurricane Peewees find themselves in the upper half of their league standings as the final games approach and playoffs are in sight.

Major novice lose heartbreaker to Hamilton squad

By Mara Fantegrossi

Georgetown's Beaver Lumber Major Novices played their first two games of the new year this past week, after winning the consolation championship at the Milton Beaver Tournament last week. They split the games, losing a real heartbreaker to Hamilton in the closing seconds.

Visiting Hamilton drew ahead with a 2-goal lead at the close of the first period. Georgetown's Raiders responded in the second with two goals of their own.

Brad Snow scored on the rebound from Graham McCulloch's shot. Late in the period, after Georgetown managed to kill off a 5-minute major penalty, Mark Fantegrossi tied it up with a shot through the 5-hole, assisted by Corey Forbes.

The third period proved to be exciting hockey, with the play sawing up and down the ice.

The Raiders, though, outplayed their opponents, outskating and outshooting them, however, with only 26 seconds left, a Hamilton player outskated the whole tired Raider team from his own end and shot in the game winner.

At the next face-off, they padded their victory with an empty-netter to make it 4-2 for Hamilton and a heartbreaking loss for Georgetown.

The Raiders bounced back on Monday night when they traveled to Dundas, and pounded their hosts, 7-2.

Chase Trull had a hat trick, Kyle Hotham scored twice, and Martin

Lefebvre and McCulloch each had single goals. The Raiders capitalized on both of Dundas' penalties with powerplay goals. Assists were drawn by Fantegrossi (2), Tim Mansfield (2), McCulloch (2), Forbes, Trull, Hotham and Snow.

The Raiders' next game is on Sunday at 6:15 at Memorial Arena against the Oakville Rangers.
