

Get involved: attend a town hall meeting

Halton-Peel MP Garth Turner is hosting a series of open, public Townhall meetings this month to give citizens an opportunity of discussing Canada's economy and its future.

"Since being elected, I have sincerely appreciated all the input that people have given me at over 50 such meetings," Turner says. "That has allowed me to make it clear in Ottawa that people in this area have strong feelings on things like lower government spending, law and order and fair taxation.

"I encourage anyone who wants to make their views known, or have me be accountable, to take part in this process."

In Halton Hills, there are two meetings next week:

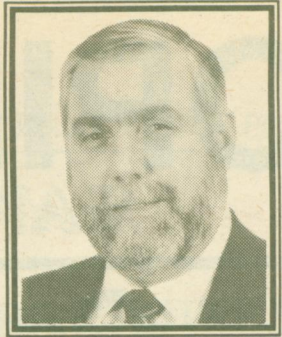

* Tuesday, January 19, 8 - 9 p.m. - a live, phone-in television show Halton Cable, Channel 4;

* Wednesday, January 20, 7:30 p.m., North Halton Golf and Curling Club, Maple Ave., at Trafalgar Road, Georgetown.
