Halton Work program needs jobs

Halton Work Program is a unique training facility aimed at providing a rehabilitative work environment to residents of North Halton.

We assist our workers in re-establishing their work skills by providing a variety of work, such as shrinkwrapping, packaging, assembly, collating, labelling, correctional work and re-packaging.

We guarantee excellent quality control and reasonable rates to all our customers.

If you have a job that needs to be done or would like to know more about our organization, call Anita Lloyd at (519) 853-3770. Located at 100 Elgin Street, Acton.

Showtime for Rotary fundraiser

It's showtime, folks. Literally. This Saturday the Rotary Club of Georgetown presents the group Showtime at the John Elliott Theatre in Georgetown. There will be two performances, a matinee at 2 p.m. and an evening performance at 7:30 p.m.

Proceeds go to the Ralph Ursel Foundation, which will sponsor an annual scholarship to a youth going on to study music or the performing arts.

Ralph Ursel was a longtime Rotarian and an enthusiastic citizen and teacher at Georgetown District High School.

Ursel founded Georgetown Globe Productions and was deeply involved in theatre and music in the community. "It's impossible to tell you just how much he did," said Rotary president Neville Worsnop.

Rotary hopes to raise the current fund to $5,000, from which the interest will provide a scholarship of about $450 per year.

"We want the interest to pay in perpetuity," said Worsnop. "We don't ever want to touch the capital."

Rotarians are hoping to raise $3700 to meet the $5,000 goal.

Showtime is a group of 24 male singers who croon everything from show tunes to rock and roll, Worsnop said.

They performed in Georgetown last year in a benefit performance for Georgetown Little Theatre. They have also opened for Max Bygraves and performed with the Hamilton Symphony and at Ontario Place.

"You'll come away feeling good...feeling spirited," said Rotarian past president Barry Timleck. "You'll know you've done something to continue with the Ralph Ursel Foundation. It's also good value for the money."

Tickets are $22 for the evening performance and $12 for the matinee.

Ticket prices include a chance to win one of five door prizes. Tickets are available from Barry Timleck, C.A., the CIBC Main Street, Halton Hills This Week, Oxbow Books, NRS Brand Realty, Re/Max Suburban Realty, TWG Travel and Young's Pharmacy.

THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF HALTON HILLS

Notice of Public Meeting Ward 1 - Urban Area of Acton

Council for the Town of Halton Hills will conduct a Public meeting to examine and discuss a proposed zoning amendment for single family dwellings in the Acton Zoning By-law 1358 to reduce the existing 40 foot rear yard requirement to a 30 foot (9.2 metre) minimum rear yard requirement. The proposed amendment will also consider the reduction of the current side yard provisions for single family dwellings in the Acton Zoning By-law.

HALTON RESIDENTS: GET READY FOR GREAT CHANGES!

GET READY Starting February 1, 1993, you will only have to take your Blue Box to the curb once every two weeks, on your regular garbage day. A new 1993 Blue Box Collection Schedule will arrive at your home by the end of January. The collection weeks in your neighbourhood will be clearly marked. Keep this schedule handy for easy reference.

GET SET You can also save a lot of material that you used to throw in the garbage. As of February 1, Halton Blue Boxes will be accepting 5 new materials.

GO! Now that the Halton Blue Box program is expanding, it's especially important to prepare both old and new materials properly for pick-up. Your 1993 schedule will give you all the information you need to get going.

What do Halton residents get for their efforts? Cost savings through more efficient collection... Fuel efficiency through less frequent pick-up... And a healthier environment.

Laidlaw Waste Systems Limited is the new Blue Box Collection contractor in Halton Region. For questions about collection service, please call 1-800-561-1655.
