Police seek armed robbers in convenience store holdup

By Sergeant Dan Farr
Halton Regional Police detectives in Burlington and Crime Stoppers of Halton are appealing to the public for any information that will lead to the arrest of the two men responsible for an armed robbery at a Burlington convenience store.

On Wednesday, 13 January 1993 at approximately 8:15 p.m. 2 young men entered Ontario Variety situated at 1327 Ontario St. in Burlington and advised the young woman behind the counter "this is a hold-up". Both suspects pulled out long-barreled handguns from inside the left side of their jackets and demanded all of the money from the cash drawer. Both men had hoods over their heads and scarves over their faces.

The store clerk complied with the demand and the two men fled from the store with a quantity of cash. They ran north along the hydro right of way. The robbers discarded some clothing and an imitation handgun during their flight.

The suspects are described as:

1. Male white, 16-17 years of age, 5'8" tall, slim build with blond hair. He was wearing blue jeans and a denim jacket, a dark blue or black hooded sweatshirt and a cream scarf over his face and he is described as having green eyes.

2. Male white, 16-17 years of age, 5'8" tall, slim build, wearing blue jeans and denim jacket with a dark blue or black hooded sweatshirt and a dark colored scarf over his face.

Both suspects had similar handguns described as long-barreled, black revolver-style handguns.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this, or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000. You need not give your name and your information will be treated with complete anonymity.

Please call 1-800-668-5151.

Crime Stoppers of Halton is operated by a Board of Directors made up of 18 civilians from all areas of Halton Region. Our reward funds result from the financial support of business, industry, service clubs and private citizens.
