Dear Editor:

Re: The appropriate outcry over the invasion of Georgetown streets by the militant right-wing radicalism of the KKK, contrasted to the disgusting silence with which the militant left-wing radicalism of Queer Nation's proselytizing in public schools has been greeted!

Having experienced first-hand the vicious right-wing racism of the KKK in my association with a Christian camping ministry to Afro-American youth in the South during College years; and having been victimized over the past two decades by the radical left-wing agenda of militant homosexuals imposed in the public schools against the will of a majority of us parents (including, most recently, a most offensive bit of homosexual proselytizing in a Georgetown high school assembly, promoted as part of a so-called "AIDS Awareness Week"); and having been identified as a "hate-monger" and a "monster" in an "open letter to the Gay/Lesbian community" currently circulating in Metro Toronto (enclosed), advocating criminal attacks on The Sun, The Salvation Army, and Roman Catholics; and having come home last Saturday evening to find my wife understandably upset by a telephoned death threat against her husband that afternoon (with some reasonable grounds for suspecting a linkage between the above-noted "open letter" and that death threat - the police are investigating); and having observed with growing consternation and anger: (1) the refusal of Ontario's Attorney-General to respond to the increasing instances and intensity of radical left-wing fascist militancy against "the religious majority"; and (2) the muzzling by the Toronto media of so much as a word reporting the sentencing by a Toronto Judge of a "Queer Nation" leader for such left-wing fascist criminal attacks on the above-noted "religious majority" (last July 28);

I wonder why there's such a ruckus of Right-Wing Extremism as the KKK's visit to the streets of Georgetown yesterday, while the subversive agenda of Left-Wing Militants being imposed in the Public School Classrooms where homosexual proselytizing of our children is pursued without official dissent, doesn't cause a ripple?
