where else in the world do you see the mutual respect that we have in Canada, and especially in Ontario."

Yacoub says the problems stem from people making incorrect assumptions about others.

"There are too many misconceptions. People put their own interpretations on issues and don't seem to base it on the real facts. The employment equity legislation is meant to be inclusive not exclusive. The intent was to give a proper representation to women, to minorities, to natives, to the physically and mentally challenged," said Yacoub.

Another meeting was held Friday where plans were to discuss the mandate of the group and the roles of the individual members. Anyone interested in participating in the group can contact Saleem Yacoub at 1-800-361-1943.

The Halton Hills Camera Club is getting ready for the 1993 juried exhibition of photographic art. Photoart '93 is open to all residents of Halton Hills. There are prizes available for both black and white and colour prints in the following categories: People and Animals; Scenery and Architecture; Abstract

To be entered, your prints must be larger than 5" x 7" but smaller than 16" x 20" and be mounted on a white board with a margin of between 2" and 3". The prints cannot be matted or framed.

You may enter up to 9 prints, but if you enter, you must enter at least 2 pictures. The entry fee is $3.00 per print. Your prints must be offered for sale, and the Halton Hills Camera Club takes a 25% commission from any sales to help cover the cost of running the show.

Your prints will be judged by 3 professional photographers. Their rulings are based on composition, technical precision and other photographic criteria.

You can enter your prints between Feb. 1 and Feb. 24, 1993 at the NRS Brand Realty Office on Mountainview Road N., Georgetown during their regular office hours.

The awards will be presented Wednesday, March 3, 1993 at 8 p.m. in the Gallery of the Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre. The prints will be on display to the public from March 3 to March 27, 1993.

Full rules are available at local merchants or from Camera Club members. For more information, please call Doug Meal at 873-0300, Sandra Timleck at 877-6198 or Jim Warrington at 853-3707.
