Bantam Hurricanes advance to second round

The JDP Minor Bantam Hurricanes bounced Brampton out of the OMHA first round playoffs in three straight games. Halton earned a 2-0 victory in the first game on January 24.

The second game at Brampton's Memorial rink was a penalty filled 3-1 victory for the locals. Darin Finlayson started the scoring as he deflected in a pass from Curtis "Wheels" Carr and Steven Roy. Brampton tied it up in the rough second period.

Early in the third Carr blasted in a rebound to put Halton into the lead. Assist went to Roy and Justin Davis. At 10:22 Davis flipped in a rebound from a Robert Haringa slapshot with help from Ryan Taylor to seal the game. Ian McGill in net made some key saves to protect the win.

On a freezing February 6th evening, Halton played the third game at home in Erin. The first period was scoreless. Finlayson put Halton on the score sheet when he buried a rebound under the crossbar with helpers going to Roy and Haringa. Geoff "The Bandit" Beauparlant was exceptional as he robbed Brampton blind with Halton again taking plenty of penalties.

In the third, Carr fed a beautiful pass to Matt Vervoorn who hammered it home for a 2-0 lead.

Brampton scored with 6:24 left to add to the excitement. Carr ended Brampton's hopes, however, at 4:10 with a picture goal as he took a soft blueline pass from Davis, wheeled by the defenceman and fired it into the upper right corner.

Roy added the icing when he slid a shot under the goalie's pads with seconds left to make it 4-1. Assists were by Vervoorn and again by Carr.

The Hurricanes now advance to play either Burlington or Ching next weekend. In a mainly defensive series, blueliners Ryan Taylor, Stuart Colvin, Jon Atley, Robert Haringa, Matt Vervoorn and Richard Trotter held Brampton to only two goals.

Coach John Mallany feels this team, barring injuries, has the potential to go all the way.

Carpet Barn splits games

Although Carpet Barn Pee Wee house league team doesn't play body contact in their league, they showed where they were on the ice in Durham this past weekend.

In their first game, Danny Cabral scored a nice goal with assists going to Curtis Gregson, Danny Jackman and Cory Rees. Sam Butt put another marker on the board with assists by Matt Burns, Danny Cabral and Thomas Arnold. After two periods, Carpet Barn found themselves tied at two.

In the third, Georgetown came out flying. Cabral got his second of the game and earning assists were Chris Mands, Jason Watt and Glen.

After three periods, the score was tied at three.

With parents on the edge of their seats and nervous coaches, overtime started.

Eight seconds into overtime, Cabral got his hat trick and assisting was Gregson and Chris Cunningham.

In game two, Carpet Barn faced off against Mitchell who were a hard-hitting, fast-skating team. Carpet Barn were down 5-0 when Butt opened Carpet Barn scoring with an unassisted goal. Then Cunningham showed everyone how it was done by getting his first goal of the tournament. Assists went to Rees, who played his best two games this year in the tournament.

Carpet Barn was knocked out of the tournament after losing 8-2 to Mitchell.

Coaches Josh Barber, Dave Frost and Kevin Spears said everyone played great and goalie Mike Kelly played awesome. When Nick Toris was needed, he came up with some big saves to help out Carpet Barn. A big thank you for all support given.

Unfortunately, Freddy Roffel made prior commitments and Mark Quaglia, out with a broken hand, couldn't play. Carpet Barn players and coaches were proud of how the team played in the tournament and would like to wish Mark Quaglia a speedy recovery.

Minor Novice Raiders lose in semis

The Minor Novice Raiders travelled to Dundas on Sunday and suffered at 4-1 loss in the first game of the semi-final play-offs. The series is a best 3-out-of-5 games.

The entire Jr. Raider squad held strong keeping the first period scoreless, with Donnie Lane making a couple of great glove saves. Dundas opened the scoring netting the first two goals in the 2nd period.

The Raiders goal on a pass from Andrew McGourty. The Raiders offense end defense were able to hold the score 2-1 at the end of the second. Dundas was able to squeeze past the Raiders to dump in two more goals in the third to make the final score 4-1.

The Minor Novice Raiders would like to thank all who supported their bottle drive. It was a great success!
