

Taking care of Business

E-Filing comes to town

Computers Talking To Computers. Revenue Canada recently approved the firm of Barry D. Timleck, Chartered Accountant to act as an authorized agent for E-Filing in Halton Hills. Tax returns prepared through his office can be electronically filed with Revenue Canada, thus providing faster and more efficient handling of the tax return process. The paperless filing will ease the burden of paper handling for Revenue Canada. This will streamline processing time resulting in faster assessments and refund cheques.

Barry, a life-long resident of Georgetown, has been in the accounting business for over 35 years. He was previously associated with the firms of Walter H. Pope; Pope & Goebelle; and Pope, Starret & Co. Since October 1, 1982 Barry has operated his own public accounting practice under the firm name, Barry D. Timleck, Chartered Accountant.

His firm provides computerized monthly, quarterly or annual financial statements and completion of personal and corporate income tax returns. Comprehensive bookkeeping and payroll services are available, including assistance with GST, Employer Health Tax, Worker's Compensation and annual filing of T4 information.

Barry's specialities include income tax and estate planning, preparation of deceased taxpayers' final tax returns, filing estate income tax returns, preparation of specialized cash flows, forecasts, business plans and financing proposals.

Barry is married with three children. His leisure activities include golf, travel and fishing. Barry is past president of the Rotary Club of Georgetown and was recently awarded a Paul Harris Fellowship, the highest distinction granted by Rotary International.

Apples with apples

Choosing a holiday can sometimes be an overwhelming experience as there is so much from which to pick. In spite of the poor economy, people are still travelling but they are being more discriminating. This is where you have to be sure you are "comparing apples with apples". If, for example, you like two holiday packages and they seem to be dramatically different in price, draw up a list for both, checking for things like number of nights, grade of hotel and location (eg. popular tourist area or out-of-the-way), ocean view or garden view, number of meals included, whether full breakfast or continental and number of other inclusions.

There are some misleading words used for describing a tour, e.g. "see" and "view", as opposed to "tour" and "visit". A description may read "Leaving Stratford, you will see Anne Hathaway's cottage." which means it will be pointed out to you as you drive by. Once you are aware, it becomes an interesting and challenging experience choosing a holiday. Just remember to compare apples with apples!
