

Georgetown young bowlers pin-pop zone challengers

by Pete Williams

The final week of the Y.B.C. National Championships Zone Finals produced three gold and three silver medals for Georgetown young bowlers.

On Saturday, the junior boys' team came from behind in their last game to a gold medal finish in the Central Ontario finals at Bramalea. The second and third place teams were only five and two pins behind. What a finish!! It really was a team effort by Andrew Terrell, Adam Scuralli, David Pegg, Paul Larocque and Michel Arsenaault.

Their coach, Gord Lane, gave the team a week off before starting preparation for the Provincial Championships on March 21.

The same day, the bantam girls' team started tied with Brampton for first place, fell behind after the second game but fought back in

Carolyn McNeil tough to beat

Goalie throw-ins can be hazardous to your health. Being hit on the head with a goalie throw can be a part of the game, as the red and blue teams discovered this week.

In indoor soccer, goalies to not dropkick the ball. The ball, however is softer than the black and white outdoor ball. Little Red Devils goalies managed to get the ball to teammates who then kicked many shots at the opposing blue team, but blue goalie Carolyn McNeil caught them all, including one that bounced off the wall behind the net. She had to snag this one from over her shoulder.

With help from teammate Katie Morris in the first half, the blue team held the Little Devils to a shutout. Blue player Becky Leferink scored one against the red team with a tip into the edge of the net off the goalie's knee in the second half. The result was 1-0 for the blue team.

Jen Tremblay was busy shooting and Lisa Campbell was busy catching for the Little Devils. Paula Gougeon and Courtney Evers-Jordan were shooting hard for the blue side, after being hit with the same bouncing ball by a Little Devil.

In the first minute of play, yellow player Stephanie Lefebvre scored for her side when they played the purple team. The action in this game was near the exit doors of the gym as players tried to clear the ball to center court.

Purple players Katherine Tuitman and Kathy Irwin spent time digging the ball out from the corners and away from yellow players Kerri Neilsen and Alison Hawes. In the second half Stephanie Lefebvre kicked one out of the left field to score another goal for the yellow side.

Faith Malinosky then kicked one in for the purple team and the score was 2-1. A nice shot by purple team and the score was 2-1. A nice the third game to win silver, just 15 pins from the gold. It showed fine spirit by Sara Pegg, Heather Pollock, Reanne Inglis, April Everingham and Kelly Klimsiak with their coach Carolyn Lane.

The bantam boys' team duplicated the girls team stand, also finishing with a silver medal. Coach Brinley Hole said that although bowling above average, the boys could not come up with the extra pins needed in the third game. Thus, it was a silver for Gordon Everett, Shane Mandarino, Brendan Louth, Matthew Rodgers and Michael Cluney.

Sunday proved more fruitful for Georgetown bowlers.

The senior girls' team and the senior boys' team captured the gold. The junior girls, although bowling the highest game for their event, 1007, were bested by Brampton and settled for silver. It was a splendid display for Janice Somers, Lynn Moreland, Jennifer Doyle, Heather Sanderson and Monica Beauparlant with coach Wendy Parent.

The senior girls directed by Dee Dee Haynes, won their division by 171 pins over Streetsville. Sharon Shapcott led with a 709 triple while Sherry Walsh came up with a 307 high game followed by Tanya Martin, Christina Lane and Laura Doyle for a total of 3223 pins.

With the senior girls cheering them on, the senior boys came on like block-busters, swamping all opponents with a 3300 total win and a more than 300 pin margin. In another week coach Ralph Miller will have his champs, Joe Robichaud, Jason Dinney, Ryan Martin, David Leslie and Shawn Morley also shaping up for the provincials.

The tournament director and Central Ontario contingent controller for the provincial championships, Andy Parent, said that Georgetown outdistanced all centres by collecting nine medals out of 11 possibles. The total was four gold, four silver and one bronze. The other two possibles were in fourth position, knocking on the door.

shot by Purple player Trisha Edwards in the last minute of play was called back because of the goalie crease rule. Leandro Sperduti refereed.

Scriptum erratum: In the first game of the season, Kristina Zelek should have been credited with her first goal of the season.
