Mac's robber sought

By Sergeant Dan Farr

Crime Stoppers of Halton is operated by a Board of Directors made up of 18 civilians from all areas of Halton Region. Our reward funds result from the financial support of business, industry, service clubs and private citizens. The Board of Directors raises the money, decides on the amount of the rewards and actually pays the rewards. Crime Stoppers of Halton Inc. is incorporated as a charitable organization, therefore all donations to the reward fund are tax deductible.

Halton Regional Police Detectives in Georgetown and Crime Stoppers are asking for the public's assistance in identifying the man responsible for a robbery at a Mac's Milk Store in Georgetown, Ontario.

On Friday the 29th of January of this year at approximately 9:42 p.m. a female clerk at the Mac's Milk Store situated at 360 Guelph St. in Georgetown was leaning on the counter reading a magazine. At this time, the store buzzer alerted her that a customer was in the store. She looked up to see a man approaching her with his face tightly wrapped in surgical bandages, covering his entire face except for the eyes. The bandages were covered with a netting material, however, the woman could still see the features of the man through the mask. The suspect appeared to have a handgun with a black, rubber grip, concealed into the waistband of his pants.

The suspect demanded "give me all the money in the till" and calmly drew the clerk's attention to the handgun in his belt.

The clerk gave the man a small amount of cash. He became angry and demanded all of the twenties. The clerk told him she did not have any twenties. The man, obviously annoyed, left the store.

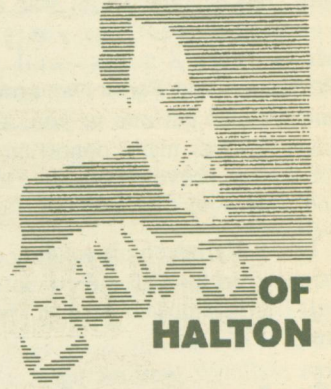

An independent witness from the store describes the suspect as male, white, 6 feet tall, 150 pounds, average build. He was wearing a dark blue or grey, wool overcoat with collar and lapels, faded jeans, powder blue colored sweatshirt and running shoes.

Six days prior to this robbery, a Mac's Milk Store in Guelph, Ontario was robbed by a suspect of very similar description.

IF YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION THAT LEADS TO AN ARREST IN THIS, OR ANY OTHER CASE, YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR A CASH REWARD OF UP TO $1,000. YOU NEED NOT GIVE YOUR NAME AND YOUR INFORMATION WILL BE TREATED WITH COMPLETE ANONYMITY.
