

Hard Times dance Saturday

By Betty Sojka

It won't be long before we can all find out what in the world a "Chinese Auction" is. Organizers of this Saturday's "Hard Times Dance" are including the auction as part of the evening's entertainment. You are asked to bring loonies for it. Some pretty interesting items will be featured. Tickets can be purchased at the Ballinafad General Store for a cost of $7.50 per person. A light meal will be served. J.V. Sound is providing the music. All proceeds will go towards the park. Come on out for a fun night, and support a worthwhile cause.

sweets donated by Marlene Burnett, Cathy Van Klink and Gloria Buckley topped off a great night of euchre. Held this past Thursday at the community centre, organizers were thrilled when enough people attended to fill 10 tables. Mr. E. Schryburt captured High Man's with his points, and it was Blanche Lemay who got the highest points for High Lady's. Most Lone Hands was won by Marg Davidson. Blustery winds and drifting snow made the drive tricky for euchre players returning home. The next euchre is scheduled for Thursday, March 18 starting at 7:30 p.m. sharp.

Mrs. Alma Sinclair held the Wednesday Women's Institute meeting at her home. Members answered the roll call of "What was your past employment?" There was a real variety in answers given. Eileen Burt convened this Canadian Industries meeting. Previous meeting minutes were read, and the treasurer's report was given. Discussion was held on the success of the February 18 euchre. The possibility of holding another euchre was also talked about. An invitation was received from the Ashgrove Women's Institute for a bus trip in late spring.

Ashgrove is visiting the historic homes of Adelaide Hoodless and Erland Lie. Both are attributed with the founding of the Women's Institute way back in 1897, starting out in Stoney Creek, Ontario. Doreen Burt showed the group had to make different kinds of bows to be used when wrapping presents, etc.

Reverend Joe Smiley is heading up a Bible Study at the United Church. Adults are meeting every Thursday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. The study will continue right up to Easter. Come on out. Everyone is welcome.
