Acton doubles Hensall 6-3

Acton Rotary Juveniles proved poor hosts Saturday night to the visiting Hensall hockey squad, doubling the out-of-towners 6-3 in the first game of their OMHA semifinal series.

Wayne Bousfield was particularly inhospitable, netting four goals and collecting two assists, basically running Hensall out of Leather Town like a hockey John Wayne look-alike.

Acton led 2-1 after the first, extended the lead to 4-1 after the second period, then matched Hensall 2-2 in the third frame allowing the visitors to leave with some semblance of pride.

Dave Deforest and Paul McLeod were the other Acton marksmen, with Deforest also adding an assist.

Dave Patey had two helpers for Acton with Jamie Cook picking up a single assist.
