

Georgetown ladies top Avondale

The happiest group of women in Georgetown this past weekend were the members of the ladies bowling team from Georgetown Bowl.

They traveled to Bramalea and defeated the local teams for the right to the next round in the Black Tower provincial team championships. The bubbling bowlers included Mary Wepruk, Lorraine Scheepstra Chris Wild, Ruby Boron and Marilyn Stephens from the Georgetown Afternoon Ladies League.

It was a battle from the start and after two games the team pulled into third place. Undaunted, the ladies continued pressing and the weaker players came through big with 200 games - much above their own average. What joy to overpower the Avondale team.

They are now anxious to continue with their sights set on the provincial finals and the special award.

Even their husbands will be great supporters as the main prize is a paid holiday for two for each member of the winning team for a vacation in Florida.

May the sun shine on them.

Martynuik red hot in win

Chris Martynuik was sizzling for Varian in a Georgetown Minor Hockey Association Atom House League playoff game, counting six goals to pace his mates to a decisive 9-5 win over A&S Engraving.

Tristan Temple added a goal and two assists with Ritchie Kovacs and Tim McNicholls adding singles for the victorious Varian team. Derrick Elliot had two goals for A&S, while Sean Currie and James Boyton also posted two point games each with a goal and an assist. Chris Rodgers added a single.

In other games, MVP defeated Dave's Service 4-2 in part due to Bart Balanowski's two-goal performance. Steve Barber chipped in with a goal and assist with Tyler Baker adding to the effort. Scott Schlegel and Errol Smith assisted on the goals. Dave Gibbons and Alex Tremblett replied for Dave's Service.

The Future Stars edged Pizza Pizza 5-3 in the other playoff game with Eric Broughton leading the way for the Future Stars with a two-goal performance. Ron Dillabaugh and Adam Key each recorded two-point games with a goal and an assist, while Chris Kirk also scored. Robbie Harlow and Jamie Larocque added assists in the Stars cause.

Pizza Pizza goal scorers were Ryan Sproule, Ian Cunningham and Tom Dales with Andrew Cowling, Garth Pride and Daniel McBride drawing assists.
