

Quick change artist on the loose

Police are looking for a man in connection with a "quick change" scam which occurred at the Canadian Tire Gas Bar on Guelph St. in Georgetown, March 12.

The suspect, described as a white male, approximately 5'10", slim build, with shoulder-length, wavy blond hair, asked the attendant for change, then changed his mind, and continued to do so until he left the gas bar. The attendant later noticed that he had given the man too much money.

The suspect had a few days growth on his face, and was wearing a dark-colored trench coat.

Failure to remain

A white four-door vehicle was hit while parked in a lot near Main St. and Mill St. in Georgetown, March 11, causing damage to the right headlight and the right side panel. Police are asking if anyone saw a blue car in the area at approximately midnight.

Pickup vandalized

Police are looking for the person who smashed the windshield of a black Mitsubishi pickup, parked at the Georgetown Market, March 12. Further damage was caused by keys which were dragged across the hood.
