

A True Blue fashion show

On Friday, Halton's Pride #393, Loyal True blue Association, held their fourth Annual Spring Fashion Show at Knox Presbyterian Church Hall.

Fashions were presented by "The Fashion Network" and their representative, Sandy Weaver of Barrie, was the Commentator. Models were Lorrie Norrie, Helen Zeravlev, Wendy Dixon, Betty Doyle, Norma Arthurton, Ila Switzer, Linda Marshall, Leslie Ross and Delina Brown.

Winners of the Door Prizes were: Linda Marshall, Delina Brown, Ann McNiven, Lena Johnston, Leslie Ross, Helen McNeil, Phyllis

Stewart, Lilly Hilts, Renae Dixon, Dorothy Cotter and Wendy Dixon.

An enjoyable evening was brought to a close with refreshments served by the lodge members.

The Loyal True blue Association supports the Loyal True blue and Orange Home at Richmond Hill, Ontario, as well as other organizations which help children. The Home now operates as a child care centre and provides a flexible day care program for over 100 children. The original home was built at Picton in the late 1800's and in 1923 a new building was opened at the present location, because the original one had outgrown the facilities.

At that time, the Orange orders became involved as well and so the combined effort of these organizations have been serving children and families for 70 years in the home on Yonge St. A summer Day Camp is also operated and is filled to capacity.

A new building, officially opened last August, will house a Diagnostic and Research Centre.

The Loyal True Blue Association will continue to care for children in every way possible.

Visitors are always welcome at the L.T.B. & O. Home and the Administrator would be pleased to show anyone interested the excellent facilities.

Mrs. Millie McNiven and Mrs. Daisy Harris are directors on the Board of the Home and both belong to Halton's Pride #393.
