Horticultural Society monthly meeting

By Elaine Vanderburg

The Georgetown Horticultural

Society monthly meeting was held Feb. 17th. Cathy Bartolic, a member of the society, was the guest speaker. She shared with us her knowledge and expertise of Dried Flowers - Growing for Arranging.

This topic is of special interest to Cathy as it is to many of us. Thank you, Cathy, for sharing with us; bringing samples; demonstrating styles of arrangements; methods of drying and reminding us of the availability of materials and their use.

Many of us forget that specimens for drying may be used from the wild, our gardens, as well as purchased.

We have two additions to the executive:

1st Vice-President - Irene Oldford

2nd Vice-President - Alison Meeks

The meeting closed after the door prize was awarded to Dorothy Waite. Refreshments were served.

Coming Events:

April 21 - Weal and Cullan Rep - Scott Beaudoin

Topic - Preparing for the Growing Season

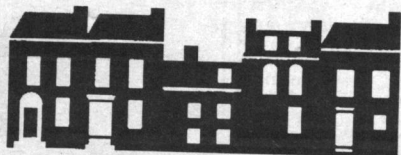

May 19 - Speaker June Laver

Topic - Miniature Roses. This is members only Spring Flower Show.

June 19 - Flower Show and Strawberry Tea

July - Summer Flower Show with an emphasis on lilies. There will be a decorative division. No judging at this show. Membership required.

All meetings for the Society are held on the third Wednesday of each month, 8 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church, Main and Church St., Georgetown from September to May, annually.
