

Grand championship games set for Sunday

ment for us, we got to fill in for a couple of games," said Marketplace Raiders coach Jack Moon.

In Division A, Stoney Creek has played some excellent hockey and advanced winning all three games. They will find it tough to go any further, however, as the Detroit squad looks poised to go all the way.

The B division has Mississauga awaiting the winner of group one involving Waterloo and Rideau St. Lawrence. Barrie looks to have a shot at the wild-card.

Kitchener and Owen Sound will face-off in one Division C match-up, while the other two groups hadn't completed play at press time.

The D division has Parkdale and Durham awaiting the winners of the other two groups.

The division semi-finals start today (Saturday) at 11:00 a.m. with the last game being played at 9:30 p.m.

The Division Finals start Sunday at 8:00 a.m. with the Grand Championship Round games slated for 2:30 and 4:30 p.m. The Grand Championship Final will start at 8:30 p.m.

Various clubs have helped throughout the tournament. Saturday (today) is Lions Club Day, while Sunday is Legion Day.

Both organizations will help with the hospitality and kitchen duties and as well, the bantam parents, hockey moms and volunteers from the community will be on hand as they have been throughout the tournament.

The Georgetown Minor Hockey Association hopes the community shows its support Sunday

Hurricanes expand boundary to include Dundas group

The Ontario Minor Hockey Association recently announced that Dundas Minor Hockey Association players would be eligible to play in the Halton AAA Minor Hockey Alliance.

The Alliance is made up of the local hockey association including Acton, Erin, Hillsburgh, Georgetown, Milton and Orangeville plus the newest entry, Dundas.

The Dundas news is a significant event for the Hurricanes as this is only their third year of operation.

In this brief span, the Hurricanes have notched four Central League titles, two OMHA championships and at date of writing, they have two teams (Minor Atoms and Minor Bantams) competing in the 1993 OMHA semi finals.

The Hurricane AAA program is available for players from eight to 18 years of age. They are always interested in talking with the parents who are considering their players options for the upcoming hockey season.

A new format is underway this year as spring tryouts have been scheduled starting Sunday, April 4, 1993. A full listing of times can be found in next weeks paper.
