

Police Beat

Car vandalized

A gray Hyundai Stellar, parked in a residential driveway on Fifth Line in Halton Hills, was vandalized on the night of March 18. The rear and side windows, the sunroof and the rear view mirror were all smashed. No other cars in the driveway were touched. The suspect is believed to be the victim's ex-boyfriend. Police are investigating.

Damaged truck

A new red Ford pickup, parked at Capital Ford on Guelph St. in Georgetown, sustained $500 damage on the night of March 18. The right side door was dented. It is not known how the damage was done or who did it. The investigation is continuing.

Tires stolen

Last Sunday, a Halton Hills man left his blue Chevy pickup at Andrew Murray Motors in Georgetown for an hour and returned to find all his tires and rims missing.
