Culligan solves your water problems

Janis Holley, who with her husband are the area Culligan representatives, was born and raised in Acton. She is well aware of the problems hard water can cause. Janis has been in the water industry for several years and has extensive training and knowledge in problem water and its solutions.

Roland Holley was born in Owen Sound and is also aware of problem water. Roland joined the industry a couple of years after Janis and also has extensive knowledge and training in problem water.

The husband and wife team have been nick-named "Heart-to-Heart", a very unique and positive couple.

Janis and Roland are very proud to be part of being able to represent Culligan, the number one leader in the water treatment industry today.

Roland and Janis Holley, Culligan's sales representatives for Halton Hills and surrounding area.

Culligan started in 1936 in the U.S.A. and came to Canada in 1947. Culligan has been servicing Halton and surrounding areas since 1947. Their technology and knowledge in water and its problems is unlimited.

Culligan is known for its service and dependability (world wide, Culligan is represented in 97 countries).

Culligan equipment for Canada is manufactured in Mississauga and is rated number one in the industry.

Culligan not only supplies people with thoroughly-trained representatives but also top quality equipment and service.

Culligan is the major company for treating commercial and industrial water in restaurants, hospitals and factories.

Janis and Roland are very confident when they come to your home and supply you with your personal water equipment that fit your needs and solve water problems.

In this day and age, people want to be assured of quality, dependability, service and a long and stable track record.

If you have any questions about your water and would like an honest and guaranteed solution, just say: "HEY CULLIGAN MAN"
