

Here's looking at Halton Hills

BARRAGERS CLEANERS
+ LAUNDROMAT

Free PICK-UP & DELIVERY
SERVICE STARTS MAY 1/93

166 GUELPH ST. 360 GUELPH ST.
GEORGETOWN GEORGETOWN
877-2279 877-1834

The Georgetown Ontario Conservatory of Music coloring contest winners included; (from left) six-year-old Stephannie Bailey, eight-year-old Jody Stapleton, nine-year-old Jason Teeuwissen and 14-year-old David Corley. Each winner received a $100 gift certificate to be used towards OCM courses.

HHTW photo

Two-year-old Matthew Mills gets his tire checked by his six-year-old sister Samantha, at the P.A.C.T. (Parents Assisting Children and Teachers) wheel sale at Robert Little School in Acton last Saturday. Funds raised will go towards construction of a playground at the school.

photo by Simon Wilson

Georgetown Branch 120 Royal Canadian Legion recognized the efforts of executive members past and present at its Honors and Awards night last Saturday. Pictured above, from left; Norm Ward, Executive Medal; Roy Bradley, Executive Medal; Florance Carswell, Executive Bar; Dave McNeilly, 2nd Vice President Medal and Bar and Peter Smith, Executive Bar.

photo by Colin Gibson

Elly Tuitman (right) co-owner of Tuitman's Garden Centre and Landscaping (located on Hwy 25 just outside of Acton) donated a cheque for $100 to Acton Foodshare coordinator Joan Waldie (sitting) and Loretta Duclos, Foodshare assistant coordinator, last Monday. The cheque is for funds collected during Tuitman's Christmas tree sales. This is the third consecutive year Tuitman's has donated a cheque to Acton Foodshare.

photo by Simon Wilson

Jack Pignatelli (centre) of the Georgetown Kinsmen Club, accepts the keys to a 1992 Cabriolet from Conrad Buy (left) owner of Georgetown's Autohaus car dealership and the keys to a 1993 Aerostar XL from Walt Dixon, owner of Georgetown's Park Lincoln Mercury car dealership. The vehicles will be up for grabs at the annual Georgetown Kinsmen Club T.V. Auction scheduled for May 3, 6 p.m. on Halton Cable System's Channel 4.

photo by Simon Wilson.

Margaret Vint, manager of Georgetown Central Business Improvement Area, greets Marie Grant as she exits the specially-sponsored Knechtel Georgetown Food Market bus on Main St. Georgetown last Wednesday. Special discounts will be offered by Georgetown downtown merchants for seniors, on the last Wednesday of each month.

photo by Simon Wilson