

Luykenaar accepts chair of region multicultural council

Willie Campos, President of the Halton Multicultural Council, is pleased to announce the appointment of Theo Luykenaar, P. Mgr., to Chair of the Halton Multicultural Business Association, succeeding its first Chair Joe Miller.

Mr. Luykenaar, who has served on the council's board, is the Senior Associate for Management Consulting with BDO Dunwoody Ward Mallette Chartered Accountants in Burlington, and also owner of De Nederlandse COURANT, Canada's oldest Dutch language newspaper, published out of Burlington. He is a member of the Rotary Club of Burlington and belongs to a number of Dutch-Canadian Associations. He is also a former Director and Industrial Campaign Chair of the United Way of Milton.

The Halton Multicultural Business Association began in the fall of 1991 to assist members of the business community in working with and within the multicultural community.
