P.O.W.E.R. garage sale

By Lois Fraser
Special

Spring has sprung (we hope!) and it is garage sale time of year. Much as we would like to be strolling in the countryside, viewing lambs bouncing in the meadows, truth is - the house is full of stuff and the garage is overflowing.

Here is the good news. P.O.W.E.R. is holding its annual Giant Garage Sale on Saturday, May 1. This year we booked the Memorial Arena on Mill Street for this area's largest garage sale. We do not know what the odds are for a sunny Saturday in May but, given last year's weather, we are not taking any chances. The arena has a large floor area and we intend to fill it.

Items suitable for donation are any goods that can be re-used that are in working condition - including the kitchen sink. Please drop off donations Monday - Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. or Saturdays 10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. at Georgetown Terminal Warehouse, 34 Armstrong Avenue (beside Wastewise). Please call 877-1780 or 853-1328 if you require pickup of bulky items.

You have been generous in the past, Halton Hills, and we know you are not out of used goods yet. Please help P.O.W.E.R. stop the dump.

Easter keepsakes

Environmentalists belonging to FOAD (Furiously Opposed to Acton Dumping) are sponsoring a fund-raising project for Easter. The group is selling letters signed by the Easter Bunny, accompanied by a large photo of the famous rabbit in a ribbon-adorned basket.

The total cost is $3. "It's a great idea for children who cannot eat chocolate or candy at Easter," FOAD president Rita Landry said. "They're nice keepsakes for the children and they're not very expensive."

Anyone wanting to buy a card can phone Landry at 878-7817 or contact Wastewise at 873-8122. The cards can also be picked up at Wastewise, 36 Armstrong Ave., Georgetown, Wednesdays or Thursday from 12 (noon) to 8 p.m. or Fridays and Saturdays, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
