

Youthful Series continues at Mohawk Raceway

By Kathy Wade-Vlaar

Bunnys First and Make A Face both posted their second consecutive wins in as many legs of Mohawk's Youthful Pacing Series last Sunday night.

Bunnys First from the Bill Robinson stable paced a 1:57.3 wire to wire five length victory over Thamesview Temp and Chance Of Flurries in the first $9,000 division.

Mindale Pride and driver Randy Waples enjoyed a pocket trip and figured to be a contender until he made an uncharacteristic break at the three-quarters mile station and finished sixth.

Bunny First and Bill Gale clocked fractions of :28.2, :59 and 1:28.2 enroute to his third win in four starts for owner Tony Chiaravalle of Hamilton.

Bruce Lloyd's promising Jate Lobell colt Make A Face posted his sixth victory in 10 starts in winning the second division of the second leg of the Youthful in 1:57 by four lengths over Mount Nemo and Country Storm.

Make A Face and trainer-driver John Kopas controlled the mile every step of the way reaching the quarter in :28.4, the half in 1:00.1, and the three-quarters in 1:29 enroute to the win.

Eicars El Diablo hung on for a neck victory in 1:56 over Befriender with Dignified Sam taking show money in the third Youthful division for driver Doug Brown and trainer Joe Stutzman.

It was a lifetime's best performance for the Nihilator colt who is owned by Carl Gregg of Pittsburgh.

Arrive At Five and Doug Brown teamed up for a 1:57.4 career best effort in the fourth Youthful division after taking over past the opening quarter. Shrewd was second and Vacilator finished third.

The fourth leg of the Youthful Pacing Series will go postward on the special Easter Sunday matinee card which starts at 1:30 pm.

Pola Crown and reinsman Bill Gale captured Sunday's $25,000 Junior and Free For All Trot in 1:59.3, outstepping Albanian Princess and Sandshu Scotty. It was the third win in 14 season outings for the Bill Robinson trainee and the win pushes him over $60,000 in earnings for owner Tony Chiaravalle.

Last Saturday night's $25,000 Free For All Pace went to Victorious Breeze from the Garth Gordon stable. Driven by Mike Saftic, the five year old son of Cam Fella paced to a personal season's best 1:55.2 effort over Pundit and Abdul Kerim.

The OJC's leading driver, Doug Brown, had a big night April 2 as he reined four winners on the evening's program.

Brown teamed up with Saint Or Sinner from the Joe Stutzman barn in race one; guided Doc Emerson from Phil Coole's stable in race four; came right back in race five with a win behind Key Intention and completed the night's quartet with Big Talent from the Rheel Bourgeois stable in the seventh dash.

Dreamin Romaine, one of the OJC's veteran campaigners at age 10 scored his second win in 10 season starts last Saturday night Mike Saftic at the helm for trainer Budd Thorne.

Staying Together paced a monster 1:51.3 track record (for older horses) effort in winning the $75,000 second leg of the Graduate as it was simulcasted from Rosecroft Raceway to Mohawk the same night.

Bill O'Donnell was assigned the drive for trainer Bob McIntosh and owner Robert Hamather.

Survivor Gold and General Ring, both from the Bill Robinson Stable finished second and third respectively.

Special matinee card on Easter Sunday - starting at 1:30 pm...Racing Monday at 7:30 pm

Mohawk's Terrace Dining Room features a special brunch buffet on Easter Sunday - $23 for adults (includes admission and program); $9 for children. All children 12 and under attending Mohawk on Easter Sunday will receive a special treat from the Easter Bunny.

Lady gridders rarin' to go

by Leanne Fournier

With the sight of the grass and mud comes thoughts of flag football. As the ladies volleyball, basketball and other winter sports come to a close, the ladies flag football league gears up for its 9th season.

Sunday mornings at 8:45 just aren't the same as May looms near and visions of pigskins and football cleats become overpowering.

Anyone who has ever played in the Sunday morning league revels in the memories of hard-fought competition, companionship and rehashing the game over a beverage or two.

Anyone interested in more information contact Andrea Ford at 877-3629 or Leanne Fournier at the CIBC 877-6963.
