

Halton Adolescent Support Service is seeking room and board accommodation for youth 16-years and over. All youths are screened by qualified workers and must be willing and able to pay rent and abide by house rules.

Landlords/ladies are asked to provide clean, affordable living quarters for a period of at least three months. In particular, accommodations in Acton are greatly needed. For further information call 876-2500.

Can you support youths in Halton Hills?

Youth Aid is a voluntary association of Halton families in extending a warm home atmosphere and emotional support to a youth (16-21 years of age) in distress. The commitment is five nights of shelter two to three times per year. Anyone interested in becoming a host family can call David Nagy at Halton Adolescent Support Services at 876-2500.

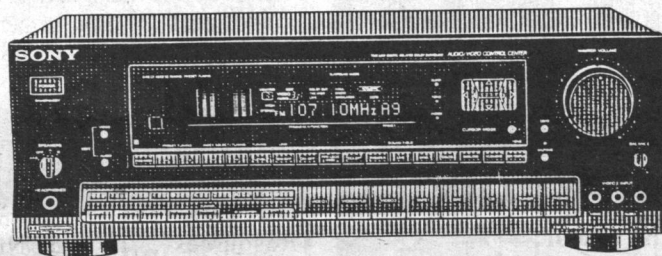

Almand's Auto Service, located at 305 Armstrong Ave. in Georgetown, was selected as the Business of the Month by Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce. Chamber representatives Al Edwards (left) and Ron Matheson (right) were on hand to bestow the honor on owner, Bob Almand.
