Police Beat

Man assaults four year old

A 37-year-old Milton man was charged with assault level 1 after slapping the four-year-old son of his girlfriend, April 4. The Georgetown woman called police following a heated dispute with the man, after which he hit the young boy who was leaving the room as the man was exiting.

Repeated vandalism

Suspects are being sought after four pop machines were pried open with a crowbar or like object. The incidents took place in Acton, early on the morning of April 4. Damage to the machines and stolen money amounted to over $3,000. The incidents took place at the Town Milk on Main St., Foodlands on Main St., Esso on Mill St., and the Cango Gas Bar on Queen St. Police report the suspects may be the same ones who smashed three windows at XL Gas on Hwy 25 the night before.

Goods stolen

On the weekend of April 3, thieves broke into a home on Fifth Line in Halton Hills and made off with approximately $17,000 worth of goods. The burglars gained entry through the front door, and made off with the stereo, VCR, jewelry, money and other valuables. The investigation is continuing.

Practical joke

A car stereo, which was reported stolen March 26, was returned by a friend of the owner, who insisted he was only playing a joke. No charges have been laid.

headline - Charity money stolen

Approximately $200, which was to be donated to charities, was stolen from the locked phys. ed. office of GDHS on March 31. Police have no suspects, but the investigation is continuing.

Speakers snatched

A car, which was parked on Edward St. in Georgetown, was broken into March 31. Speakers worth $400 were stolen. Police have no suspects.

Hit and run

$300 damage resulted when the left rear quarter panel of a Lenworth Metal Production vehicle was smashed by an unidentified vehicle March 3 at 130 Guelph St. Police are continuing their investigation.

Meeting on April 22. Elections will be on April 25 at 2 p.m.

There will be a super mini bingo on May 1. Plan not to miss this full evening of entertainment and fun which will begin with the meat draw at 6 p.m. followed by the disc jockey at 8 p.m. and of course, the mini bingo at 9:30 p.m. There will be special cocktails and special prices and a buffet at 11 p.m. Mark your calendar and be sure to come along, it promises to be a real special night.

Legion Lines

Congratulations to Comrade Mac McLean, who was elected to the position of Deputy Zone Commander, Zone B7. He takes over his new duties at the Provincial Convention in June.

Our deepest sympathies go to the families of Comrade G.H. Clarke and Comrade D. Hurren, both of whom passed away this last week.

Congratulations to Comrade Gord Browne, who tied the knot with Shirley Fendley on April 2. We wish them all the happiness in the world.
