Steve and Brenda Bischoff, third generation owners of The Ravine Pub welcome everyone to their family style English establishment.

The Ravine offers special atmosphere

Located on Highway 7 and backing onto the Credit River Valley, The Ravine Pub offers olde tyme country atmosphere within the town limits. Be it sitting on the terrace patio overlooking the valley or in front of the fireplace you get the feeling of home and Steve and Brenda plan to keep it that way.

The Ravine changed ownership on November 1st although it remains in the family name. Steve and Brenda Bischoff purchased the establishment from Steve's grandparents Anne and Edwin Bischoff.

Steve was a chef for CP Hotels and Resorts prior to the purchase of the Ravine Dining Lounge and was asked why change to a pub format. He advised he did not want to spend all his time in the kitchen but wanted the opportunity to mingle with his customers; giving them a place to enjoy not just for the food but for the casual atmosphere and friendships made.

Being a pub they offer the usual darts and pool but in a non competitive nature. Games are played designed to allow players of all levels to compete evenly so everyone is welcome.

Steve and Brenda would like to thank everyone for their patronage and ideas shared since November making the Ravine more enjoyable for all, and look forward to new friendships to be made.
