

Bing is 80 years young

By Ellen Piehl
Special

Friends and family gathered together last Saturday afternoon at the Trinity United Church in Acton to wish Bing Ramsden a happy 80th birthday.

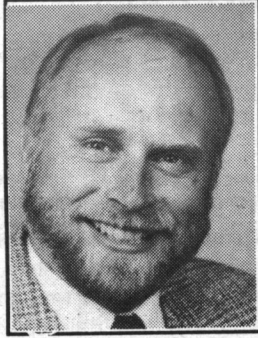

"It's very nice," said Ramsden as he shared his feelings about reaching this milestone.

Born in the state of Kentucky, Ramsden came to Acton in 1928 and was a farmer for about 30 years before being employed at the Ontario Veterinary College in Guelph.

In 1939, Ramsden married his wife Jessie at his mother-in-law's house in Acton. They had two children and lived on a farm in Eramosa Township for 34 years.

So, what is the secret for someone like Bing to live this long? "Having a good wife and nice family," said Ramsden as he put his arm around Jessie during the interview.

Bing Ramsden has been on this earth for 80 years now and says he plans to stick around a few more. "I enjoy life," he says, "hope I survive a few more years to enjoy it."
