Caregivers Support Group

A seven-week program is offered to anyone caring for elderly family members who live in the caregiver's home or elsewhere. Participants will have the opportunity to share their difficulties and receive support; learn more about options and resources and increase their ability to cope with their caregiving role.

The program is offered on Thursdays from 1:00-3:00 p.m. at COHR Family Services in Burlington from April 29 to June 10, 1993. The group leader, Debbie Yates, is a counsellor with COHR Family Services and has offered caregiving support groups for three years. She is also experienced in supporting caregivers.

To register for this program call COHR at 416-637-5256. If you wish to attend but do not have transportation or require respite care, please let them know as they may be able to find the resources. For those in Acton interested in going down, call us at Acton Social Services and Information Centre (853-3310) as we may be able to provide transportation.
