

Here's looking at Halton Hills

BARRAGERS CLEANERS
+ LAUNDROMAT
Free PICK-UP & DELIVERY
SERVICE STARTS MAY 1/93

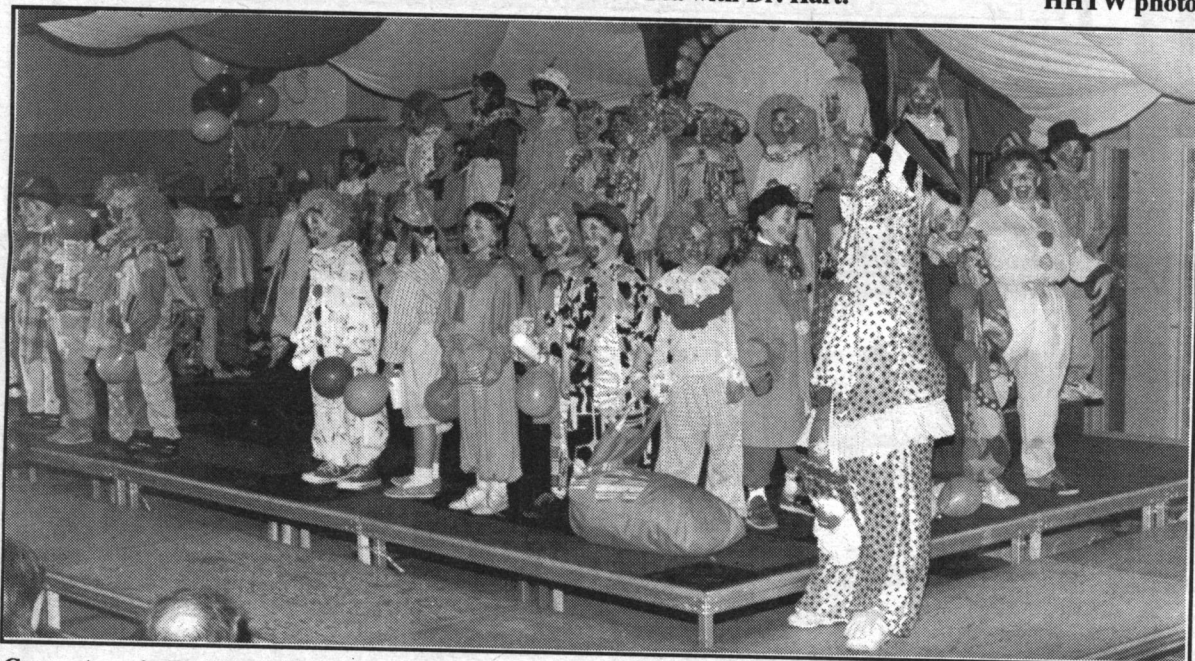

166 GUELPH ST. 360 GUELPH ST.
GEORGETOWN GEORGETOWN
877-2279 877-1834

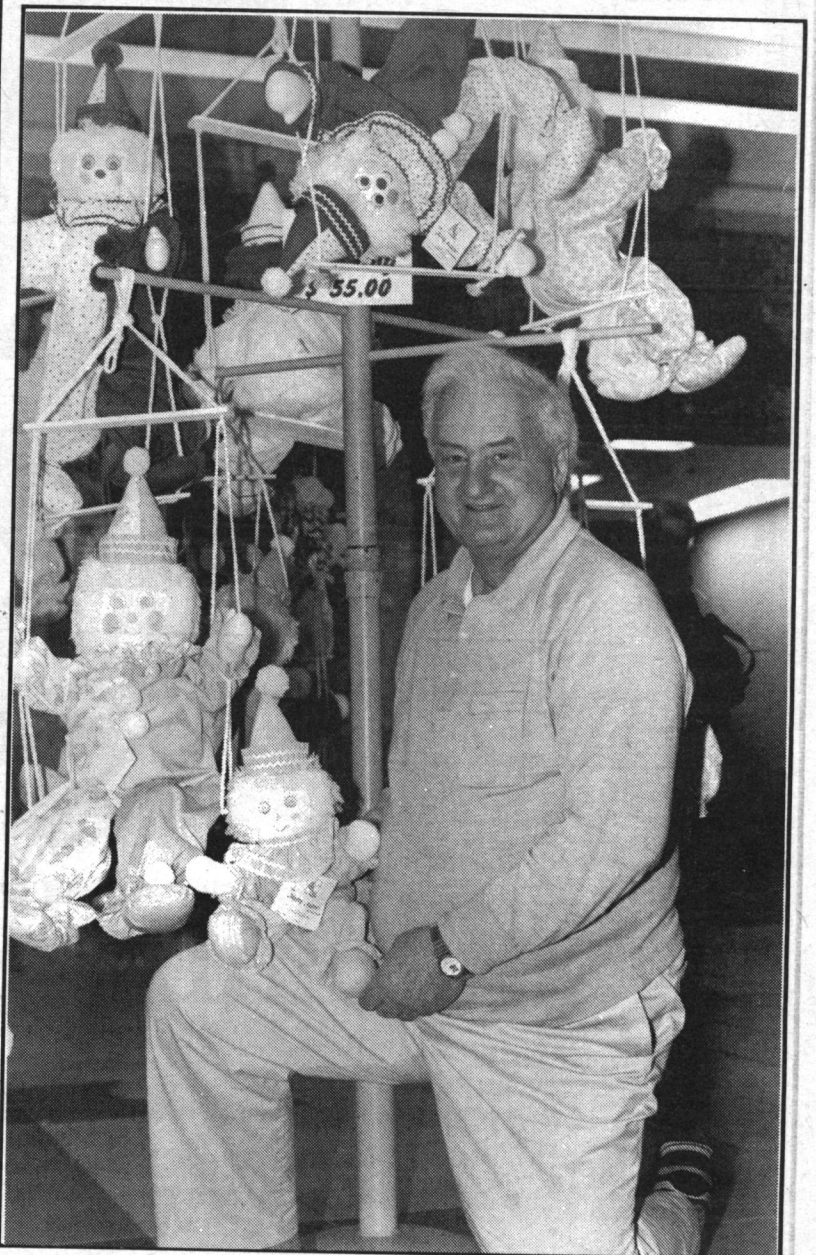

This year's Georgetown Kinsmen Club T.V. Auction, scheduled to start at 6 p.m. on May 3 on Halton Cable System's Cable 4 has some real treasures to offer. Local artists Linda Donais-Weir and Carole Black have each donated prints, much to the delight of Kinsmen Club member, Jack Pignatell. Linda (left) has donated Country's Threshold, while Carole has donated Tea with Dr. Hart. HHTW photo

Marc Sutton (playing the role of Jeff Barry) sweet talks Michele Lunau (playing the role of Ellie Greenwich) during dress rehearsal for the Acton High School production of the 50's musical, Leader of the Pack. The show is being staged this Thursday and Friday, show times both evenings is 7:30 p.m. photo by Simon Wilson/HHTW

Georgetown's Park Public School presented 'We're the Clowns' last Monday afternoon, a venture that was truly a total school effort involving students and teachers in every aspect of the production. A second show was staged Tuesday evening, with the third and final presentation Wednesday night. photo by Simon Wilson/HHTW

Willard Lichty of Durham displays his hand-crafted clown puppets at the Georgetown Marketplace First Annual Spring Craft Show which continues through today (Saturday) from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. photo by Simon Wilson/HHTW

Assistant Cubmaster Ivy Hume of 1st Georgetown cub pack was invested recently. A.C.M. Darren McCallum (left) and Cubmaster Ken Nokes flank the new Cubmaster. Also assisting in the ceremony were Cubs Chad Hume (left, Ivy's son) and Eric King. photo by Jean Layman