

Playoffs intensify efforts in girls indoor soccer

By Ruth Taylor

As playoffs begin, indoor soccer teams are displaying the result of the winter's work.

In the play of the week, Blue player Sinead Irvine stopped the ball off the wall at one side of the yellow goalie crease, and passed to teammate Katie Morris on the other side. Katie then put the ball in the net at an unstopable angle.

All games are now 24 minutes so that each team will play the other teams in a round-robin over two weeks. Blue player Kirstina Zelek stopped one with her midriff and then aimed a ball at yellow goalie Jennifer Elliott who stopped it by sliding into it. Yellow players Kerri Neilson and Alanna Zelek played well in defense. Teammate Colleen Thompson had one called back because of the goalie crease rule.

Yellow player Branwen Williams netted one from a defensive position 3/4 of the way down the court when the ball bounced weirdly. Annie Schaefer tied the game at 2-2 for the Yellow Hornets, scoring from alongside the crease after a booming shot off the wall. Blue players Lindsay Sproule and Paula Gougeon played good body defense to keep the game at tie.

In the game between the Red Devils and the Purple team, purple player Katharine Tuitman was busy bouncing balls off door frames as she cleared the corner balls from red player Lisa Campbell. Purple player Angie Crane headed the ball as it fell straight down after a near miss with the ceiling and some other good headers were seen by red shirts Becky Culp and Amanda Burgan. In the third fast game, the Red Devils and the Blue team stopped all balls with body parts. Brianne Evers-Jordan and Bethan Elliot played both ways for the Red Devils. Blue players Kathy Irvine, Paula Gougeon and Courtney Evers-Jordan kept stopping those balls with chests, midriffs and feet.

Red player Kim Moore perfected her headers with three leaping bounces in a row as she steered the ball toward the goal. Some quality shots on goal by the Blue players tested the Little Red Devil's goalies, including one even the goalie thought she'd missed but the Blue player was in the crease. Then Little Red Devil Taylor fired one in the Blue net from among a tangle of players at the top of the crease for a 1-0 win for the Reds.

Going into the finals, team standings show the following record of overall games won-lost: Yellow with 7-2; Blue with 5-4; Red and Purple tied at 3-6.
