On March 23, at approximately 11:30 a.m. a lone male subject entered the Bank of Montreal, 5041 Lakeshore Rd., Burlington, and approached one of the tellers. The male produced a small black hand gun and demanded money. While the teller was handing over the money, the suspect stated, "that's enough". The suspect in the case is described as male, white, approximately 30 years of age, 5'7" to 5'8" in height, 200 lbs (heavy build), tanned complexion.

The suspect was wearing a brown jacket, navy blue wool hat, a dark colored turtleneck and sunglasses. He had a bandaid on the left side of his face and was carrying a small black hand gun.
