Bargain hunters' paradise opens on Main Street

Halton Hills area bargain hunters' eyes no doubt lit up with the Grand Opening Saturday of D.P. Liquidators - Main Street Miracle store in downtown Georgetown.

D.P. Liquidators is located at 76 Main St. South, in the former premises of Young's Pharmacy, and ample parking is available either right on main street or just off main street where numerous free parking areas are designated.

The downtown Georgetown location is the first of four such stores to open and plans are in place to open a store in Acton sometime before July, said a D.P. Liquidators spokesman.

The Georgetown outlet is managed by Jackie Inglis and Kim Bucke is the assistant manager.

The idea behind the stores is to bring bankrupt/liquidations/overruns stock directly to the public at less than wholesale prices. Inventory changes weekly and items available to the public run the gamut from automobile supplies to food items.

Because D.P. Liquidators is a liquidation company as well as a retailer, products can be brought directly to the consumer bypassing as many as three different procedures-individuals which in turn could have raised the price of articles.

D.P. Liquidators - Main Street Miracle store has opened at just the right time for cost-conscious consumers who now, more than ever, must make sure that every dollar counts.
