IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of Jeremiab Fendley
 With Special Thanks to Jeff Boudreau

Jeremiab Fendley

Kicken cold chillen nineteen ninety-two
 It was a bad year for quite a few
 November twenty-sixth was the day
 Raining real bad when he passed away
 While playing volley ball he went down
 In the middle of the gym on the ground
 Doctor, teacher, parent, classmate
 All tried to help but it was too late
 He was announced dead on the scene
 That's when things started to get mean
 Punches were flying, holes in the wall
 Tears were pouring, thinking of the 8-ball
 People going nuts, going insane
 G'NR's playing November Rain
 A good sports man, one of the best,
 Put any challenger to the test
 He was only seventeen what a shame
 Lost his life to a volley ball game
 Why him we ask, well nobody knows
 It goes to show that everyone goes
 Kind of makes you think, who's next to go?
 Friend, relative, yourself, you never know
 Just remember people come and people go!

Listen close while my story's being told
 It was funeral day and it was cold
 A town gathering, nothing but silence
 A lot of tears but no more violence
 The whole town was all under one roof
 Looking at him was their only proof
 Still wondering about what went wrong
 They still can't believe that he's gone
 Staring at him while walking the aisle
 He looked alive with his perfect smile
 Hugged his mom, shook dad's hand
 That was when my tears ran Down my face it wasn't fair
 Pale, couldn't breathe, needed air
 I headed outside, well ready to burst
 Sat and watched,
 while they loaded the hearse
 Everyone was quiet with nothing to say
 The hearse was loaded and on its way
 Got to his grave and they put him down
 That's when I chose to go back to town
 The 8-ball's rolling there's a lot of pain
 It's very cold in this November rain.

It's been many months and many days
 Up on the hill is where his body lays People go up to see their lost peer
 Pay respects have a smoke shed a tear
 They would look above and then below
 They get upset and then they'd go
 Tears and hugs, kisses and more
 There's now more love than there was before
 One minute your partying
 having a good time
 Something reminds you
 then he's on your mind
 Wherever you go you feel he's there
 You're always depressed and it's not fair
 Why did they have to take him away
 Now all we do is just sit and pray
 Everyone still wondering what went wrong
 How could it happen with a heart so strong
 He went so fast just like a bang
 At least we know there was little pain
 Well he's gone now so R.I.P.
 We love you from friends and family
 So if you can hear us from up above
 We want you to know we send our love

Jeff Boudreau

*This was given to me and reading this I wanted to share this poem with others who Miab knew. I now realize my beautiful son has touched many hearts, not just my husband's and my own.
 Thank You. Paula Fendley.*
