Preceptor Gamma Chi active, healthy and involved

By Etta Mills

Theatre outings, St. Patrick's Day party, champagne brunch, and our Founders Day celebrations have been keeping our chapter active, healthy and involved.

The GLT production of Dr. Cook's garden was thoroughly enjoyable and as always it was a rewarding and entertaining outing. Jeannette Heinneman hosted an authentic Irish Night, the wearing o' the green, traditional foods and all the trimmings.

The Champagne Brunch at Jazzy's home was fun with a delicious buffet being enjoyed by all. Then came the "Quiz Night" at Loison's place, (time to take our brains out of the deep freeze!) All in all a very busy, and enjoyable couple of months.

On April 27 we celebrated our "Founder's Day" in Georgetown. Four local chapters attended this evening (approx. 50 women) at Fay's Restaurant. Fay's put on a superb banquet and the service was outstanding. We held rituals for our five new sisters and welcomed one "transferee". Two special awards were presented - "Girl of the Year" for Loison Helmer from Preceptor Gamma Chi and Cathie Ahearn from Preceptor Delta Kappa. Well done!

The guest speaker for the evening was Norma Tripp, a long-standing member of sorority, a toastmaster, and teacher. Norma's speech was on Lucy Maude Montgomery, (a one time Norval resident like Norma herself). Norma's mother went to school with one of Lucy Maude's sons! It was a very informative and entertaining speech. Thanks to the "Sorority City Council" for putting on a great and memorable evening.

May activities abound through Halton Region

May 8 Conservation Areas Awareness Day
