Legion meet is close to starting blocks

By Colin Gibson

The Georgetown Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 2nd annual track and field meet is settling into the starting blocks in preparation for its June 12 unveiling at the Georgetown and District High School track and field facilities.

Peter Smith, the executive officer in charge of track and field activities for the Georgetown Legion, reports that the 13 Georgetown area elementary schools which have been invited to take part have been advised of the schedule of events and that posters will shortly be appearing in the schools letting everyone know how the special day has been laid out.

The Georgetown and area schools participating include; Centennial, Stewarttown, Georgetown Christian School, George Kennedy, Glen Williams, Holy Cross, Joseph Gibbons, Limehouse, Park, Pineview, St. Francis of Assisi, Sacre-Coeur and Harrison.

Events are scheduled to get underway at 9 a.m. and wrap-up about mid-afternoon.

Rebs thrash Notre Dame

The Georgetown District High School Rebels senior girls softball team made short work of Notre Dame last Monday, triumphing 5-1.

Shannon Morris carried most of the weight for the Rebels, tossing the win and being named, along with Kim Brown, as an offensive star.
