Hold that tiger

Police were notified Thursday that two Bengal tigers were being kept on a farm on the Fourth Line, Concession 5 in Esquesing Township. The tigers were seen roaming in a fenced-off area, but the owner was not home at the time of the inspection.

the same location, according to a police report.

Police report Bob Ustrzycki, Town of Halton Hills law enforcement and licensing officer, told them Halton Hills does not currently have an exotic pet by-law, but that he plans on introducing a recommendation to Halton Hills council in two months time.

There was also an unconfirmed report that bears were being kept at

Limehouse woman hospitalized

A 29-year-old Limehouse woman lost control of her car Monday evening on 22 Side Road west of Highway 7, slammed into a tree, bounced back and ended up partly in Silver Creek, according to a police report of the incident.

Hospital. The regional traffic unit is continuing the investigation.

Police said Sheri L. Newman was driving her 1991 Hyundai west-bound on 22 Side Road when the car hit the curb and left the road on the south side. Newman had to be extricated by Halton Hills firefighters, and was taken to Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital with serious injuries. She was later transferred to Hamilton General

Police Beat

Garth not right for everyone
 Sometime on the May 1 weekend, someone broke into Halton-Peel M.P. Garth Turner's office on Main St. in Georgetown and stole a "Garth for all the right reasons" sign, valued at $200. Police have no suspects.

Bitter ex-employee
 A transport driver from Barrie barged into the D.D.H. Distribution Ltd. office on Mountainview Rd. in Georgetown on the morning of May 3 and threatened the occupant with a tire iron. The accused was an ex-employee of the victim, and according to a police report, was enraged by a previous job loss. Although the driver left without incident, he was charged with assault for screaming death threats while brandishing the tire iron.
