

Glen pops Puslinch

By Wendi Goodhew

Glen Pee Wee boy's coaches Rob Clarke and Chris Goodhew adopted Yogi Berra's theme "It ain't over till it's over" entering the last inning against Puslinch Tuesday night, down 9-4.

Jeff Telford pitched a great game and played well in the field. Mike Crawford sent a Puslinch batter back to the bench when he caught a line drive at second base.

The Glen rallied on their last bat to make the score 9-8 with two out and bases loaded. Chris Hall was up to bat when a wild pitch hit his already bruised leg, sending him to first and the tying run home.

Joey Goodhew sent his first pitch foul, just missing coach Rob (who decided to watch this one behind the fence). Joey sent the second pitch long and hard into center field driving in the winning run and two extra for good measure.

The curfew ran out and the Glen won 12-10.

Scott Watson, Chris Mands, Bob Davison and Jesse Ward all made some strong plays. Bryan McAnash, Mike Rome and Darren McLean had some good hits.

The Glen players will be out selling chocolate bars to support their league. Please help out!

Rebel ladies show Pearson no mercy

By Mike Zrostek

It appears Georgetown District High School's Rebels girls softball team is headed for an undefeated regular season after out-powering Pearson 18-10 Wednesday.

The Rebels were led at the plate by Laura Komorowski who went 3-for-4, driving in four runs, while Shannon Morris got the win. The Rebels, who play their last regular season game Tuesday at the Fairgrounds against M.M. Robinson, are poised to head into the playoffs firing on all cylinders as they try to re-capture the Halton championship.

Coach Bob Hastie says the girls are playing sound ball and are ready for the playoffs. "We did all of our losing in the tournament we had here. If we play hard I think we should win the whole thing."

The girls are number one overall out of the 20 teams in the league and have been beating the other teams quite convincingly, including the recent coed tournament at Nelson High School in Burlington. Eight girls from the team participated along with eight boys from GDHS. Hastie admitted that none of the five teams came even close to the Rebels in the round-robin.

Playoffs for the team start May 31 with the Rebels getting a bye in the first round.

Lucky Number 13

Mourning After 13
Snowy's Grapevine 2

Thirteen proved to be lucky for this team with good bats by Debbie Anderson, Wendy Marshall, and Laurie Hanson. Great pitching by Sharon Smia, Julie Burgon and Niki Zmija. Good throwing by Debbie Ferguson and Niki Zmija. Excellent gloves were worn by Sharon Zmija, Bernice Griffiths and Louise Campbell. As for Snowy's Grapevine, well, these grapes aren't quite at vintage yet but it's early in the season. Herminia Henderson showed her strength by hitting a double and scoring a run. Paula Zillio and Carol Hillock both had RBI's. Great effort, girls!

Kendale turns out the Lights

Kendale Mechanical sept past Living lighting 6-1, in Slo Pitch League action last Sunday at the Georgetown Fairgrounds.

Sam Moore paced the winners with a home run, with Bob McLeod chipping in with a triple.

Andy Parent and Don Puckering combined for a fine pitching job, holding the Light men in check.

Steve Lee and Doug Penrice had two hits each for Living Lighting.

In other league action, the Elks Club squeezed past the Optimists, 7-6.

The Elks were led by Frank MacMullen who went 4-for-4 and Scott Laverty who went 3-for-3 with a home run and three RBIs.
